Whereas the benefices of Llangammarch and Llanlleonfel, both in the county of Brecon and diocese of Saint David's, were avoided, the former on the twenty-second day of January last past and the latter on or about the same date, by the retirement of the Reverend David Edward Williams (hereinafter called the retired Incumbent), and there was assigned to the retired Incumbent under the provisions of the Incumbents' Resignation Acts, 1871 and 1887, out of the revenues of the benefice of Llangammarch a yearly pension of seventy pounds (hereinafter called the said pension), now we, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, acting in accordance with our Regulations dated the thirtieth day of May, one thousand nine hundred and seven, relating to grants in aid of pensions to retired Incumbents (hereinafter called the said Regulations) do hereby grant out of our common fund first to the Incumbent of the said benefice of Llangammarch and his successors, Incumbents thereof, the yearly sum of twenty pounds, and secondly to the retired Incumbent the yearly sum of thirty pounds, each of the said yearly sums so granted to continue payable so long only as the said pension shall continue payable out of the revenues of the said benefice of Llangammarch and to be subject as hereinafter mentioned, and to commence and be computed from the said twenty-second day of January last past, and to be paid by equal quarterly payments on the first day of February, the first day of May, the first day of August, and the first day of November in every year, subject nevertheless to cesser, determination, withdrawal, suspension or reduction as a grant made in accordance with the said Regulations, and to all other the provisions and conditions contained in the said Regulations and applicable to a grant made in accordance therewith.

In witness whereof, we have hereunto set our common seal this twenty-fifth day of June, one thousand nine hundred and eight.

Whereas the benefice of Rhoscrowther, in the county of Pembroke and diocese of Saint David's (hereinafter called the said benefice), was avoided on the twenty-eighth day of December last past by the retirement under the provisions of the Incumbents' Resignation Acts, 1871 and 1887, of the Reverend Charles Morgan (hereinafter called the retired Incumbent), and there was assigned to the retired Incumbent a yearly pension under the said Resignation Acts of sixty-five pounds (hereinafter called the said pension), now we, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, acting in accordance with our Regulations dated the thirtieth day of May, one thousand nine hundred and seven, relating to grants in aid of pensions to retired Incumbents (hereinafter called the said Regulations), do hereby grant out of our common fund first to the Incumbent of the said benefice and his successors, Incumbents thereof, the yearly sum of twenty pounds, and secondly to the retired Incumbent the yearly sum of thirty pounds, each of the said yearly sums so granted to continue payable so long only as the said pension shall continue payable out of the revenues of the said benefice, and to be subject as hereinafter mentioned, and to commence and be computed from the said twenty-eighth day of December last past, and to be paid by equal quarterly payments on the first day of February, the first day of May, the first day of August, and the first day of November in every year, subject nevertheless to cesser, determination, withdrawal, suspension or reduction as a grant made in accordance with the said Regulations, and to all other the provisions and conditions contained in the said Regulations and applicable to a grant made in accordance therewith.

In witness whereof, we have hereunto set our common seal this twenty-fifth day of June, one thousand nine hundred and eight.

Whereas the benefice of Stonham Parva, in the county of Suffolk and diocese of Norwich (hereinafter called the said benefice) was avoided on the thirteenth day of June instant by the retirement under the provisions of the Incumbents
