“Provided always that if such parsonage house or rectory house as aforesaid be hereafter provided out of the said investments and the whole of the said investments be not expended upon the provision of such parsonage house or rectory house, the portion remaining unappropriated to that purpose shall be added to the moneys which in accordance with the said Order in Council of the seventeenth day of May, one thousand eight hundred and ninety, are as aforesaid invested in the names of the Incumbent and three of the churchwardens of the said united benefice, and the dividends whereon are applicable towards the maintenance of the fabric of the parish church of the united benefice and of divine service therein.

“And we further recommend and propose that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid, or any of them, in accordance with the provisions of the said Act or of any other Act of Parliament.”

And whereas the said supplemental scheme has been approved by His Majesty in Council: now, therefore, His Majesty, by and with the advice of His said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said supplemental scheme, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Act: and His Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of London.
