

thousand nine hundred and eight, in the words following, viz. :—

“Whereas by Section three of the Naval and Marine Pay and Pensions Act, 1865, it is enacted, inter alia, that all pay, pensions and other allowances in the nature thereof, payable in respect of services in Your Majesty’s Naval or Marine Forces to a person being or having been an Officer, seaman or marine therein, shall be paid in such manner, and subject to such restrictions as are from time to time directed by Order in Council :

“And whereas by Your Majesty’s Order in Council of the twenty-eighth day of March, one thousand nine hundred and three, sanctioning certain regulations with regard to Your Majesty’s Corps of Royal Marines, Captains of eight years’ seniority in the said Corps of Royal Marines receive no further increase of pay until promoted to the rank of Major :

“And whereas there is every indication that within the next few years some of these Officers may complete upwards of seventeen years’ service in the rank of Captain :

“We beg leave humbly to recommend that Your Majesty will be graciously pleased to approve of the following additions to the present scale of pay, viz. :—

	R.M.A. per diem.	R.M.L.I. per diem.
Captain after eleven years’ seniority	15s. 1d.	14s. 7d.
Captain after fourteen years’ seniority	15s. 7d.	15s. 1d.

“The Lords Commissioners of Your Majesty’s Treasury have signified their concurrence in this proposal.”

His Majesty having taken the said Memorial into consideration, was pleased, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, to approve of what is therein proposed. And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty are to give the necessary directions herein accordingly.

At the Court at Goodwood House, the 1st day of August, 1908.

PRESENT,

The KING’s Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS there was this day read at the Board a Memorial from the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty, dated the twenty-first day of July, one thousand nine hundred and eight, in the words following, viz. :—

“Whereas by section three of the Naval and Marine Pay and Pensions Act, 1865, it is enacted, inter alia, that all pay, pensions and other allowances in the nature thereof payable in respect of services in Your Majesty’s Naval or Royal Marine Forces to a person being or having been an Officer, Seaman, or Marine therein, shall be paid in such manner and subject to such restrictions, conditions, and provisions as are from time to time directed by Order in Council :

“And whereas we are of opinion that it is desirable that the allowance of ten shillings a month granted by Your Majesty’s Order in Council of twenty-fourth March, one thousand nine hundred and two, to Warrant Officers employed in Coaling duties to meet the expense which they incur for wear and tear of clothing, should be extended to other appointments :—

“We beg leave humbly to recommend that

Your Majesty will be graciously pleased, by Your Order in Council, to sanction the following proposals :—

“I. That Warrant Officers, or Officers promoted therefrom, when employed on duties connected with Target practice may, at our discretion, be granted an allowance for wear and tear of clothing not exceeding ten shillings a month, this provision to be retrospective to first April, one thousand nine hundred and seven, in order to cover payment to the Officers of Your Majesty’s ship ‘Revenge,’ tender to the Gunnery School at Portsmouth.

“II. That subject to the prior sanction of the Lords Commissioners of Your Majesty’s Treasury in each case, the allowance may be granted within the same maximum and to the same classes of Officers when engaged on other than Target duties.

“The Lords Commissioners of Your Majesty’s Treasury have signified their concurrence in these proposals.”

His Majesty, having taken the said Memorial into consideration, was pleased, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, to approve of what is therein proposed. And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty are to give the necessary directions herein accordingly,

A. W. FitzRoy.

At the Court at Goodwood House, the 1st day of August, 1908.

PRESENT,

The KING’s Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by the Burial Act, 1853, as amended by the Burial Act, 1900, it was enacted that, in case it appeared to His Majesty in Council, upon the representation of the Local Government Board, that, for the protection of the public health, the opening of any new burial-ground in any city or town, or within any other limits, save with the previous approval of the Local Government Board, should be prohibited, or that burials in any city or town, or within any other limits, or in any burial-grounds or places of burial, should be wholly discontinued, or should be discontinued subject to any exception or qualification, it should be lawful for His Majesty, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, to order that no new burial-ground should be opened in any city or town, or within such limits, without such previous approval, or (as the case might require) that, after a time mentioned in the Order, burials in such city or town, or within such limits, or in such burial-grounds or places of burial, should be discontinued wholly, or subject to any exceptions or qualifications mentioned in such Order, and so from time to time as circumstances might require ; provided always that notice of such representation, and of the time when it should please His Majesty to order that the same be taken into consideration by the Privy Council, should be published in the London Gazette, and should be affixed on the doors of the churches or chapels of, or on some other conspicuous places within, the parishes affected by such representation, one month before such representation was so considered ; provided also that no such representation should be made in relation to the burial-ground of any parish until ten days’ previous notice of the intention to make such representation should have been
