

given to the Incumbent and vestry clerk or churchwardens of such parish:

And whereas the Local Government Board, after giving to the Incumbent and the Churchwardens of the parish of Morley ten days' previous notice of their intention to make such representation, made a representation stating that, for the protection of the public health, no new burial ground should be opened in the borough of Morley without the previous approval of the Local Government Board, and that burials should be discontinued in the said borough as hereinafter directed:

And whereas His Majesty was pleased, by His Order in Council of the fourth day of June, one thousand nine hundred and eight, to give notice of such representation, and to order that the same should be taken into consideration by a Committee of the Lords of His Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council, on the twentieth day of July, one thousand nine hundred and eight, and such Order has been published in the London Gazette, and copies thereof have been affixed, as required by the said Act:

Now, therefore, His Majesty, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, is pleased to order, as it is hereby ordered, that no new burial-ground shall be opened in the said borough without the previous approval of the Local Government Board, and that burials in the said borough shall be discontinued as follows, viz.:

MORLEY.—Forthwith and entirely in the Congregational Church of Saint Mary in the Wood, Morley, in the borough of Morley, and in that portion of the churchyard which was in existence prior to the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-one.

A. W. FitzRoy.

Privy Council Office, August 1, 1908.

The following Statute, made on the twenty-fifth day of June, one thousand nine hundred and eight, by the Governing Body of Christ Church, Oxford, has been submitted for the approval of His Majesty in Council, and notice of its having been so submitted is published in accordance with the provisions contained in "The Universities of Oxford and Cambridge Act, 1877":—

Christ Church, Oxford.

Statute XVI., Clause 9, as altered by the Governing Body on the twenty-fifth day of June, one thousand nine hundred and eight, by substituting the word eighteen for the word "fifteen."

Statute XVI. The Students.

9. There shall be not more than eighteen Official Students, including Dr. Lee's Readers, but exclusive of any person who, under the provisions of these Statutes, may be placed on the Governing Body.

Privy Council Office, August 1, 1908.

The following Statute, made by the Governing Body of All Souls College, Oxford, on the fourth day of July, one thousand nine hundred and eight, and sealed on the eleventh day of July, one thousand nine hundred and eight, amending Statute III, Clause 7, has been submitted for the approval of His Majesty in Council, and notice of its having been so submitted is published in accordance with the provisions contained in "The Universities of Oxford and Cambridge Act, 1877":—

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

THE HUMBLE PETITION of the Warden and College of the Souls of All Faithful People deceased of Oxford, commonly called All Souls College.

Whereas the University of Oxford Commissioners under and by virtue of all and every the powers in that behalf enabling them contained in the Universities of Oxford and Cambridge Act, 1877, did by an Instrument under their seal, dated the sixteenth day of June, one thousand eight hundred and eighty-one, make certain Statutes thereunto annexed for your Petitioners who are therein described as "the College of All Souls of the Faithful Departed, commonly called All Souls College, in the University of Oxford."

And whereas such Statutes were approved by Her late Majesty in Council on the third day of May, one thousand eight hundred and eighty-two:

And whereas Statute III, Clause 7, was in the words following, that is to say:—

"7. Seven other Fellowships shall be awarded by a Board of Electors consisting of the Warden, four Fellows of the College appointed for a term of five years by the Warden and Fellows, Bodley's Librarian for the time being, and three Members of Convocation appointed for a term of five years by the Hebdomadal Council of the University. Elections to these Fellowships may be held after examination, or without examination, as the electors shall from time to time determine, but subject to the following conditions of eligibility (that is to say):—

"Any person may be elected who, having passed all the examinations required by the University for the Degree of Bachelor of Arts, and being in the judgment of the electors qualified by character and attainments to be a Fellow of the College, undertakes to prosecute in the College or the University, or under the direction of the College or the University elsewhere, some definite literary or scientific work which shall be specified in the resolution by which he is elected. The right to elect shall be vested in the electors present at the election, and that person shall be elected for whom the greatest number of those present shall have voted. In case of equality of votes, the Warden, if present, shall have a casting vote.

"Not more than one of these Fellowships shall be filled up in any year. If in any year there be no person whom the electors shall judge qualified for election, the Fellowship shall be suspended, and the emoluments of it shall fall into the Corporate Revenues of the College. A Fellow elected under this clause may be re-elected in like manner and under like conditions from time to time."

And whereas on the twenty-sixth day of March, one thousand nine hundred and seven, the King's Most Excellent Majesty in Council approved of the following alteration in the before mentioned Statute III, Clause 7 (which had been resolved on at a general meeting of the Governing Body of the said College, held on the twenty-fourth day of February, one thousand nine hundred and six), being made, that is to say, that after the words "any person may be elected who," contained in such clause of the said
