PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

Earl of Crewe.
Lord Chamberlain.
Lord Denman.
Mr. Runciman.

WHEREAS by the Straits Settlements Extradition Order, 1889, provision has been made for the surrender by the Government of the Straits Settlements to Foreign States, in the case of which the Extradition Act, 1870, does not apply, of persons accused or convicted of the commission of certain crimes and offences within the jurisdiction of such States.

And whereas it is expedient to amend the said Order.

Now, therefore, it is hereby ordered by His Majesty, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, as follows:—

1. The said Order and this Order shall be read and construed as one Order in Council.
2. With particular reference to the State of Johore "fugitive criminal" and "fugitive criminal of a State" include any person accused or convicted of a breach of contract of service in the Military or Naval Forces of His Highness the Sultan of Johore, and "crime" includes any such breach of contract as aforesaid.
3. This Order may be cited as the Straits Settlements Extradition Order, 1908.

A. W. FitzRoy.

At the Court at Goodwood House, the 1st day of August, 1908.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by Order in Council dated the second day of November, one thousand nine hundred and seven, His Majesty was pleased, in pursuance of the powers in Him vested by the Merchant Shipping Act, 1894, to approve and confirm the Bye-laws set forth in the schedule annexed to such Order fixing the rates to be demanded and received for pilotage between the ports of Hull and Goole and for exemption and otherwise as is more particularly specified in such schedule, and did declare that such Bye-laws should be in force until the second day of September, one thousand nine hundred and eight:

No. 28166.

And whereas it appears expedient to His Majesty to extend the operation of such Order for a further period:

Now, therefore, His Majesty, by virtue of the power in Him vested by the Merchant Shipping Act, 1894, and of any other power thereunto Him enabling, and by and with the advice of His Privy Council, is pleased to order and doth by this Order declare that the Bye-laws set forth in the schedule annexed to the said Order in Council of the second day of November, one thousand nine hundred and seven, shall remain in force until the thirty-first day of December, one thousand nine hundred and eight, anything to the contrary in the said Order notwithstanding.

A. W. FitzRoy.

At the Court at Goodwood House, the 1st day of August, 1908.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by the 582nd and 583rd Sections of the Merchant Shipping Act, 1894, it is enacted that a Pilotage Authority may, by Bye-law made under Part X of that Act, do all or any of the things specified in Section 582; but that a Bye-law so made shall not take effect until it is submitted to His Majesty in Council and confirmed by Order in Council:

And whereas the Lord Mayor, Aldermen and Burgesses of the city of Bristol, being a Pilotage Authority, have made and submitted for the confirmation of His Majesty certain Bye-laws as set forth in the schedule hereto annexed:

And whereas it has been made to appear to His Majesty that the proposed Bye-laws are proper and reasonable:

Now, therefore, His Majesty, by virtue of the powers vested in Him by the Merchant Shipping Act, 1894, and by and with the advice of His Privy Council, is pleased to approve of and doth by this Order confirm the said Bye-laws, as set forth in the schedule hereto annexed.

A. W. FitzRoy.

SCHEDULE to which the foregoing Order refers.

BY-LAWS made by the Lord Mayor, Aldermen and Burgesses of the city of Bristol, acting as the Pilotage Authority of the port of Bristol under and by virtue of the Bristol Wharfage Act, 1807, and the Merchant Shipping Act, 1894.

1. The following by-laws shall commence and take effect on the first day of October, one thousand nine hundred and eight.

2. So much of by-law number twenty-six made by the Mayor, Aldermen and Burgesses of
