

consent of the said Randall Thomas, Archbishop of Canterbury (in testimony whereof he has signed this scheme and sealed the same with his archiepiscopal seal), we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, humbly recommend and propose that upon and from the day of the date of the publication in the London Gazette of any Order of Your Majesty in Council ratifying this scheme and without any conveyance or assurance in the law other than such duly gazetted Order the whole advowson or perpetual right of patronage of and presentation to the said benefice of Bobbing now vested in him, the said Henry George Hilton, as aforesaid, shall be transferred to the said Randall Thomas, Archbishop of Canterbury, and his successors in the same archbishoprick, and shall thereupon and thenceforth become and be absolutely vested in and shall and may from time to time be exercised by the said Randall Thomas, Archbishop of Canterbury, and by his successors in the same archbishoprick for ever.

"And we further recommend and propose that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any further or other measures relating to the matters aforesaid or any of them in accordance with the provisions of the said Acts or of any of them or of any other Act of Parliament."

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by His Majesty in Council: now, therefore, His Majesty, by and with the advice of His said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Acts; and His Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of Canterbury.

A. W. FitzRoy.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 19th day of October, 1908.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have in pursuance of the Act of the eighth and ninth years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, chapter seventy; of the Act of the fourteenth and fifteenth years of Her said late Majesty, chapter ninety-seven; and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Her said late Majesty, chapter fifty-five; duly prepared and laid before His Majesty in Council a representation, bearing date the fourth day of June, in the year one thousand nine hundred and eight, in the words and figures following, that is to say:—

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the eighth and ninth years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, chapter seventy, of the Act of the fourteenth and fifteenth years of Her said late Majesty, chapter ninety-seven, and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Her said late Majesty, chapter fifty-five, have prepared, and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council the following representation as to the assignment of a consolidated chapelry to the consecrated church of Saint Thomas, situate at Longford, in the parish of Foleshill, in the county of Warwick, and in the diocese of Worcester.

"Whereas at certain extremities of the said parish of Foleshill, of the parish of Walsgrave-on-Sowe, and of the parish of Exhall, both in the said county and diocese, which said extremities lie contiguous one to another, and are described in the schedule hereunder written, there is collected together a population which is situate at a distance from the several churches of such parishes.

"And whereas it appears to us to be expedient that certain contiguous portions (being the portions containing the population aforesaid) of the said parish of Foleshill, of the said parish of Walsgrave-on-Sowe, and of the said parish of Exhall should be formed into a consolidated chapelry for all ecclesiastical purposes, and that the same should be assigned to the said church of Saint Thomas, situate at Longford as aforesaid.

"Now, therefore, with the consent of the Right Reverend Huyshe Wolcott, Bishop of Worcester, as such Bishop, with the consent of the Right Honourable Robert Threshie, Baron Loreburn, now Lord High Chancellor of Great Britain acting on behalf of Your Majesty as the Patron as well of the vicarage of the said parish of Foleshill as of the vicarage of the said parish of Walsgrave-on-Sowe, and with the consent of the Right Honourable Jane, Dowager Countess of Aylesford, of Offchurch Bury, Leamington Spa, in the said county of Warwick, as the Patron of the vicarage of the said parish of Exhall (in testimony whereof they, the said consenting parties, have respectively signed and sealed this representation), we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, humbly represent that it would, in our opinion, be expedient that all those contiguous portions of the said parish of Foleshill, the said parish of Walsgrave-on-Sowe, and the said parish of Exhall, which are described in the schedule hereunder written, all which portions, together with the boundaries thereof, are delineated and set forth on the map or plan hereunto annexed, should be united and formed into one consolidated chapelry for the said church of Saint Thomas, situate at Longford as aforesaid, and that the same should be named 'The Consolidated Chapelry of Saint Thomas, Longford.'

"We therefore humbly pray that Your Majesty will be graciously pleased to take the premises into Your Royal consideration, and to make such Order in respect thereto as to Your Majesty in Your Royal Wisdom shall seem meet.

"The SCHEDULE to which the foregoing Representation has reference.

"The Consolidated Chapelry of Saint Thomas, Longford, comprising:—

"I. All that portion of the parish of Foleshill, in the county of Warwick and in the diocese of Worcester, which is bounded upon the east partly by the parish of Walsgrave-on-Sowe, and partly by the parish of Bulkington, upon the north-west by the parish of Exhall, all in the said county and diocese, and upon the remaining sides, that is to say, upon the south-west and upon the south, by an imaginary line commencing at the point where the boundary which divides the said parish of Exhall from the said parish of Foleshill crosses the middle of Bassford Bridge, which carries the road leading from Woodshires Green to Rowley's Green across the River Sowe, and extending thence first south-eastward and then in various directions along the middle of the River Sowe for a distance of one mile and sixty-five chains or
