

marriages, baptisms, churchings, and burials should be solemnized or performed at the said church of Saint Barnabas, situate at Newcastle-upon-Tyne as aforesaid, and that the fees to be received in respect of the publication of such banns and of the solemnization or performance of the said offices should be paid and belong to the Minister of the same church for the time being: Provided always, that nothing herein contained shall be construed as expressing any intention on the part of us the said Commissioners to concur in or approve the taking of any fee for the performance of the said office of baptism or for the registration thereof.

"We, therefore, humbly pray that Your Majesty will be graciously pleased to take the premises into Your Royal consideration, and to make such Order with respect thereto as to Your Majesty in Your Royal wisdom shall seem meet.

"The SCHEDULE to which the foregoing Representation has reference.

"The District Chapelry of Saint Barnabas Newcastle-upon-Tyne, being:—

"All that part of the new parish (sometime particular district) of Jesmond, in the county of Northumberland and in the diocese of Newcastle, which is bounded upon the south-east partly by the district chapelry of Saint Gabriel, Heaton, Newcastle-upon-Tyne, and partly by the new parish of Saint Silas, Byker, upon the south-west by the consolidated chapelry of Saint Jude, Shieldfield, all in the said county and diocese, and upon the remaining sides, that is to say, upon the north-west and upon the north, by an imaginary line commencing at the point where the boundary which divides the said consolidated chapelry of Saint Jude, Shieldfield, from the said new parish of Jesmond meets the south-eastern side of Sandyford-road, and extending thence first north-westward to the middle of Sandyford-road and then north-eastward along the middle of such road for a distance of twenty-seven chains and a half or thereabouts to its junction with Jesmond-road, and extending thence eastward in a straight line (thereby passing to the north of the house and premises known as Sandyford Park) for a distance of eighteen chains or thereabouts to the junction of the road called Northumberland-gardens with the road called Lansdowne-gardens, and extending thence eastward along the middle of Lansdowne-gardens for a distance of four chains and three-quarters or thereabouts to the point where such road turns northward, and continuing thence eastward in precisely the same direction and in a straight line for a distance of six chains and a half or thereabouts to a point in the middle of the Ouse Burn upon the boundary which divides the said new parish of Jesmond from the said district chapelry of Saint Gabriel, Heaton, Newcastle-upon-Tyne."

And whereas the said representation has been approved by His Majesty in Council: now, therefore, His Majesty by and with the advice of His said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said representation, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Acts; and His Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of Newcastle.

A. W. FitzRoy.

At the Court at Windsor Castle, the 21st day of November, 1908.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by section twenty-six of the Pluralities Act, 1838, after reciting that "Whereas in some instances tithings, hamlets, chapelries, and other places or districts may be separated from the parishes or mother churches to which they belong, with great advantage, and places altogether extra-parochial may in some instances with advantage be annexed to parishes or districts to which they are contiguous, or be constituted separate parishes for ecclesiastical purposes," it is, amongst other things, enacted "That when with respect to his own diocese it shall appear to the Archbishop of the Province, or when the Bishop of any diocese shall represent to the said Archbishop that any such tithing, hamlet, chapelry, place, or district within the diocese of such Archbishop, or the diocese of such Bishop, as the case may be, may be advantageously separated from any parish or mother church, and either be constituted a separate benefice by itself or be united to any other parish to which it may be more conveniently annexed, or to any other adjoining tithing, hamlet, chapelry, place, or district, parochial or extra-parochial, so as to form a separate parish or benefice, or that any extra-parochial place may with advantage be annexed to any parish to which it is contiguous, or be constituted a separate parish for ecclesiastical purposes; and the said Archbishop or Bishop shall draw up a scheme in writing (the scheme of such Bishop to be transmitted to the said Archbishop for his consideration) describing the mode in which it appears to him that the alteration may best be effected, and how the changes consequent on such alteration in respect to ecclesiastical jurisdiction, glebe-lands, tithes, rent charges, and other ecclesiastical dues, rates, and payments, and in respect to patronage and rights to pews, may be made with justice to all parties interested; and if the patron or patrons of the benefice or benefices to be affected by such alteration shall consent in writing under his or their hands to such scheme, or to such modification thereof as the said Archbishop may approve, and the said Archbishop shall, on full consideration and inquiry, be satisfied with any such scheme, or modification thereof, and shall certify the same and such consent as aforesaid, by his report to His Majesty in Council, it shall be lawful for His Majesty in Council to make an Order for carrying such scheme, or modification thereof, as the case may be, into effect."

And whereas the Right Reverend Charles John, Lord Bishop of Chichester, hath, pursuant to the enactment aforesaid, represented in a writing dated the eighth day of August, one thousand nine hundred and eight, to the Right Honourable and Most Reverend Randall Thomas, Lord Archbishop of Canterbury, as follows:—

"I, the Right Reverend Charles John, Lord Bishop of Chichester, do hereby represent to your Grace:—

"That there is in the county of Sussex and my diocese of Chichester the rectory of Westmeston otherwise Westmerston otherwise Westmynston otherwise Westmyston with the chapel of Chiltington comprising the parish of Westmeston and the hamlet or parish of East Chiltington the boundaries whereof are well known and defined and which is hereinafter referred to as the rectory or parish of Westmeston.
