

willingness and also in token that the same transfer has that consent of the Bishop which by the Acts in the hereinbefore-mentioned Act recited or by some or one of them is made necessary he, the said John William, Bishop of Carlisle, has executed this scheme as hereinafter mentioned.

"And whereas it appears to us that the transfer of the patronage of the said benefice of Christ Church, Great Broughton, which is hereinbefore mentioned and hereinafter recommended and proposed will tend to make better provision for the cure of souls in the parish or district in or in respect of which the right of patronage or advowson so recommended and proposed to be transferred as aforesaid arises or exists, that is to say, in the new parish of Christ Church, Great Broughton.

"Now therefore with the consent of the said Alfred Sutton, the present Vicar or Incumbent of the said parish of Bridekirk, acting as such Vicar or Incumbent (in testimony whereof he has signed and sealed this scheme), and with the consent of the said John William, Bishop of Carlisle (in testimony whereof he has signed this scheme and sealed the same with his episcopal seal), we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, humbly recommend and propose that upon and from the day of the date of the publication in the London Gazette of any Order of Your Majesty in Council ratifying this scheme and without any conveyance or assurance in the law other than such duly gazetted Order, the whole advowson or perpetual right of patronage of and presentation to the said benefice of Christ Church, Great Broughton, now vested in him, the said Alfred Sutton, as such Vicar or Incumbent of the said vicarage of Bridekirk as aforesaid, shall be transferred from the said Alfred Sutton and from his successors Vicars or Incumbents of the said vicarage of Bridekirk, to the said John William, Bishop of Carlisle, and his successors in the same Bishoprick and shall thereupon and thenceforth become and be absolutely vested in and shall and may from time to time be exercised by the said John William, Bishop of Carlisle, and by his successors in the same Bishoprick for ever.

"And we further recommend and propose that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any further or other measures relating to the matters aforesaid or any of them in accordance with the provisions of the said Acts or of any of them or of any other Act of Parliament."

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by His Majesty in Council: now, therefore, His Majesty, by and with the advice of His said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Acts; and His Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of Carlisle.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 21st day of December, 1908.

PRESENT.

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the thirty-third and thirty-fourth years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, chapter thirty-nine, and of the Acts therein mentioned, that is to say, the Act of the third and fourth years of

Her said late Majesty, chapter one hundred and thirteen; the Act of the fourth and fifth years of Her said late Majesty, chapter thirty-nine; and the Act of the thirty-first and thirty-second years of Her said late Majesty, chapter one hundred and fourteen, duly prepared and laid before His Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the fifth day of November, in the year one thousand nine hundred and eight, in the words following, that is to say:—

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the thirty-third and thirty-fourth years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, chapter thirty-nine, and of the Acts therein mentioned, that is to say, the Act of the third and fourth years of Her said late Majesty, chapter one hundred and thirteen, the Act of the fourth and fifth years of Her said late Majesty, chapter thirty-nine, and the Act of the thirty-first and thirty-second years of Her said late Majesty, chapter one hundred and fourteen, have prepared and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council the following scheme for effecting a transfer of the ownership of the advowson or perpetual right of patronage of and presentation to the church and cure (hereinafter called 'the said benefice') of Wollaston, in the county of Northampton and in the diocese of Peterborough.

"Whereas the advowson or perpetual right of patronage of and presentation to the said benefice of Wollaston is vested for an estate in fee simple without incumbrances in Cecil Henrietta Powell, the wife of the Reverend Harcourt Morley Isaac Powell, Clerk in Holy Orders, the present Vicar or Incumbent of the said benefice of Wollaston.

"And whereas the said Cecil Henrietta Powell is desirous that the whole advowson or perpetual right of patronage of and presentation to the said benefice of Wollaston now vested in her as aforesaid should be transferred to and be vested in the Bishop for the time being of the said diocese of Peterborough.

"And whereas the Honourable and Right Reverend Edward Carr, now Bishop of Peterborough, is willing to accept such transfer, and in token of such his willingness and also in token that the same transfer has that consent of the Bishop of the diocese which by the Acts in the hereinbefore mentioned Act recited or by some or one of them is made necessary he, the said Edward Carr, Bishop of Peterborough, has executed this scheme as hereinafter mentioned.

"And whereas the transfer of the patronage of the said benefice of Wollaston which is hereinbefore mentioned and hereinafter recommended and proposed will render the same benefice more eligible for augmentation out of funds under our control, and this circumstance will in our opinion tend to make better provision for the cure of souls in the parish or district in or in respect of which the right of patronage or advowson so recommended and proposed to be transferred as aforesaid arises or exists, that is to say, in the parish of Wollaston.

"Now therefore with the consent of the said Cecil Henrietta Powell (in testimony whereof she has signed and sealed this scheme) and with the consent of the said Edward Carr, Bishop of Peterborough (in testimony whereof he has signed this scheme and sealed the same with his episcopal seal), we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, humbly recommend and propose that upon and from the day of the date of the publication in the London Gazette of any Order of Your Majesty in Council ratifying this scheme and without any conveyance or assurance in the law other than such duly
