

THE PUBLIC HEALTH (FOREIGN MEAT)
REGULATIONS, 1908.

WE, THE LOCAL GOVERNMENT BOARD, in pursuance of the Public Health (Foreign Meat) Regulations, 1908, HEREBY GIVE NOTICE that, for the purposes of those Regulations, each Official Certificate of which the details are set forth in any representation or design or in any verbal description comprised in the schedule appended to and forming part of this Notice is, subject to such instructions as are comprised in the notes subjoined to the representation or design or verbal description, hereby declared, in relation to each country of which, as a place of origin, the name is prefixed as a heading to that representation, or design, or verbal description, to be admissible, in the case of the Official Certificate which relates to the Netherlands, during the period beginning on the First day of October, One thousand nine hundred and eight, and ending on the First day of May, One thousand nine hundred and nine, and, in the case of an Official Certificate which relates to any other Country, during the period of twelve months beginning on the First day of October, One thousand nine hundred and eight, in the manner, to the extent, and subject to the rules and conditions prescribed in this Notice, as evidence that the pig from which any foreign meat is derived has been certified by a competent authority in the place of origin to be free from disease at the time of slaughter, and that the meat has been certified by the like authority to have been dressed or prepared, and packed with the needful observance of all requirements for the prevention of danger arising to public health from the meat as an article of food :

AND FURTHER, with respect to the manner, to the extent, and to the rules and conditions in, to, and subject to which every Official Certificate is admissible as evidence for any such purpose as is hereinbefore described, We hereby prescribe as follows, that is to say :—

(i) An Official Certificate used in relation to foreign meat, or in relation to a box, case, receptacle or package containing foreign meat shall be admissible as aforesaid only where the meat is derived from a pig.

(ii) An Official Certificate in the form of a label shall be admissible as aforesaid only where the label is securely affixed or attached to any foreign meat, or to any box, case, receptacle or package containing foreign meat; and where the label so affixed or attached has not, in any other circumstances, or on any other occasion, been used as an Official Certificate.

(iii) In this Notice, any word or expression to which a special meaning is assigned by the Public Health (Foreign Meat) Regulations, 1908, has the same meaning as in those Regulations.
