Dated this twenty-second day of January, 1909.

H. C. Monro, Assistant-Secretary,
Local Government Board.

MOTOR CAR ACT, 1903.

Boroughs of East Ham and West Ham.

Whereas by sub-section 1 of section 9 of the Motor Car Act, 1903, it is enacted that within any limits or place referred to in regulations made by the Local Government Board with a view to the safety of the public, on the application of the local authority of the area in which the limits or place are situate, a person shall not drive a motor car at a speed exceeding ten miles per hour:

Notice is hereby given, that the Council of the Borough of East Ham have made application to the Local Government Board for a regulation to be made in pursuance of the said sub-section putting the above-mentioned provisions of that sub-section in force within the limits comprising the following roads or parts of roads within the borough, that is to say:—

High-street North and High-street South, extending from Romford-road to Roman-road;
So much of Barking-road as is comprised within the borough;

So much of Romford-road as extends from its junction with Balmoral-road to the eastern boundary of the borough.

And notice is hereby given, that the Councils of the boroughs of East Ham and West Ham have jointly made application to the Local Government Board for a regulation to be made in pursuance of the said sub-section, putting the aforesaid provisions of that sub-section in force within the limits comprising the portion of Romford-road, situate partly within each borough, and extending from its junction with Richmond-road to its junction with Balmoral-road aforesaid.

Notice is hereby further given, that objections to the making of any such regulations may be sent in writing to the Local Government Board at their offices at Whitehall, London, on or before the eleventh day of February, 1909.

A copy of any such objection should be sent, in writing, at the same time by the objector to the Council of the borough of East Ham, addressed to the Town Clerk.

Dated this twenty-first day of January, 1909.

J. S. Davy, Assistant-Secretary,
Local Government Board.

By the Lieutenant-Governor.

A PROCLAMATION.

Isle of Man to wit.

Whereas the infectious disease, commonly called "Foot and Mouth Disease," prevails amongst animals in certain foreign countries:

And whereas in order to prevent the introduction into this Island of such disease, it is considered advisable to prohibit the importation of animals from abroad:

Now I, the said Lieutenant-Governor, by and with the advice and consent of two members of the Council, and in exercise of the powers contained in The Cattle Diseases Prevention Acts, do hereby order that from and after the date hereof no animal shall be imported into this Island from any place other than the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland and the Channel Islands.

The expression "Animal" in this Order shall mean cattle and sheep, as defined by section 18 of "The Cattle Diseases Prevention Act, 1865," and shall also include swine and goats.

Given this 4th day of January, 1909.

RAGLAN,

Lieutenant-Governor.

Board of Trade (Harbour Department),

London, January 25, 1909.

H. 1195.

The Board of Trade have received, through the Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs, a copy of a Circular, dated January 13th, issued by the Bulgarian Government, prescribing the following quarantine measures on travellers and goods coming from Russia:—

(1) Travellers coming from Russia will only be admitted to the ports of Varna, Silistria, and Rustchuk after having undergone a medical examination and strict disinfection of their effects and baggage. They will be under surveillance at their houses by the Sanitary Authorities for 5 days.

(2) Goods of all kinds, food stuffs and animal products will be admitted freely into the country.

(3) Ships coming from Russian ports provided with clean bills of health, which have not had on board any cases of suspected cholera, will receive free pratique in Bulgarian ports after a medical inspection of their crews and passengers, the latter to be submitted to strict disinfection in accordance with paragraph 1.

(4) All regulations contrary to those stated above have been abolished.

Admiralty, 21st January, 1909.

In accordance with the provisions of His Majesty's Order in Council of 19th March, 1908:—
Engineer Commander George Pascoe has been placed on the Retired List at his own request.
Dated 20th January, 1909.
