MOTOR CAR ACT, 1903.

Borough of Richmond (Surrey).

Whereas by sub-section 1 of section 9 of the Motor Car Act, 1903, it is enacted that within any limits or place referred to in regulations made by the Local Government Board with a view to the safety of the public, on the application of the local authority of the area in which the limits or place are situate, a person shall not drive a motor car at a speed exceeding ten miles per hour:

Notice is hereby given, that the Council of the Borough of Richmond have made application to the Local Government Board for a regulation to be made in pursuance of the said sub-section putting the above-mentioned provisions of that sub-section in force within the limits comprising the following roads within the borough, that is to say:—

Sheen-road, from Lower George-street to the boundary of the borough;

Lower George-street, George-street, Hill-street, Hill-rise, and Richmond Hill (The Terrace);

Kew-road and the Quadrant;

Lower Mortlake-road, from Kew-road to the boundary of the borough;

Sandycombe-road; and

Petersham-road, from Hill-rise to the boundary of the borough.

Notice is hereby further given, that objections to the making of any such regulations may be sent in writing to the Local Government Board, at their offices at Whitehall, London, on or before the tenth day of March, 1909.

A copy of any such objection should be sent, in writing, at the same time by the objector to the Council of the said borough, addressed to the Town Clerk.

Dated this seventeenth day of February, 1909.
