TUESDAY, APRIL 6, 1909.

At the Court at Saint James's, the 2nd day of April, 1909.

PRESENT,

HIS ROYAL HIGHNESS THE PRINCE OF WALES.

Lord President.
 Lord Steward.
 Lord Haversham.
 Lord Pentland.

WHEREAS His Majesty was pleased, by His Commission dated the second day of March, one thousand nine hundred and nine, to nominate and appoint His Royal Highness the Prince of Wales, in His Majesty's absence from His Realm in Foreign Parts, to hold, on His Majesty's behalf, His Privy Council, and to signify thereat His approval of any matter or thing whereunto His Royal Highness should be so authorized by writing under His Majesty's Sign Manual, and to do further on His Majesty's behalf any matter or thing for the purposes of the said Commission whereunto His Royal Highness should be authorized in manner aforesaid.

And whereas by section eighty-three of the Children Act, 1908 (in this Order referred to as the Children Act), it is enacted as follows:—

“The provisions of this part of this Act with respect to industrial schools shall, so far as applicable, apply to certified day industrial schools, subject to such modifications as are made therein by this part of this Act: Provided that His Majesty may by Order in Council make such further modifications of those provisions as may appear to His Majesty to be necessary or proper for adapting those provisions to day industrial schools, and any such Order may provide that a child may be punished for an offence by being sent to a certified industrial school in lieu of a certified reformatory school, or may otherwise mitigate any punishment imposed by the provisions of this Part of this Act in relation to industrial schools.” :

Now, therefore, His Royal Highness the Prince of Wales, being authorized thereto by writing under His Majesty's Sign Manual, and in pursuance of the above mentioned Act, doth hereby, by and with the advice of His Majesty's Privy Council, on behalf of His Majesty, order that the following provisions shall apply to certified day industrial schools:—

Effect of Withdrawal or Resignation of Certificate.

I. Section forty-nine of the Children Act shall, in its application to day industrial schools, take effect with modifications as follows:—

A child shall not be received into a certified day industrial school in pursuance of the Children Act after the date of the receipt by the managers of the school of a notice of withdrawal of the certificate for the school or after the date of a notice of resignation of the certificate; but the obligation hereinafter mentioned of the managers to provide with industrial training, elementary education, and one or more meals a day, any children detained in or attending the school at the respective dates aforesaid shall, except so far as the Secretary of State otherwise directs, continue until the withdrawal or resignation of the certificate takes effect, or until the discontinuance of the contribution out of money provided by Parliament towards the expenses of the children detained in the school, whichever may first happen: Provided that when a child is received in pursuance of section seventy-nine under an attendance order, or without an order, the obligation of the managers shall be suspended
