

the payment to be made until further order, and shall be enforceable as an order of affiliation.

(2) Any such order may, on application being made either by the person on whom the order is made or at the instance of the local education authority, and on fourteen days' notice of such application being given to such authority or person on whom the order was made, be varied by any court which would have had power to make the order.

(3) Any such order shall be binding on the person on whom it is made:

Provided that if that person was not summoned to attend the sitting of the court at which the order was made, the order shall be served on him in manner prescribed by rules of court, and shall be binding on him unless he makes an application against it within the time prescribed by rules of court to the court by which the order was made, on the ground that he is not liable to maintain the child, and on any such application being made the court may confirm the order with or without modifications or may rescind it.

(4) Where a parent or other person has been so ordered to contribute to the industrial training and meals of a child, he shall give notice of any change of address to the local education authority, and if he fails to do so, without reasonable excuse, he shall be liable on summary conviction to a fine not exceeding two pounds.

(5) The local education authority may in their discretion remit wholly or partially any payment ordered to be made under this section.

(6) Where there is some person, other than the parent, for the time being liable to maintain a child, such an order as aforesaid may be made on that person, notwithstanding that there may be also a parent.

(7) Any court making an order for contribution by a parent or other such person may, in any case where there is any pension or income payable to such parent or other person and capable of being attached, after giving the person by whom the pension or income is payable an opportunity of being heard, further order that such part as the court may see fit of the pension or income be attached and be paid to the person named by the court. Such further order shall be an authority to the person by whom such pension or other income is payable to make the payment so ordered, and the receipt of the person to whom the payment is ordered to be made shall be a good discharge to such first-named person.

XIII. Section 88 (6) of the Children Act shall, in its application to day industrial schools, take effect with modifications as follows:—

A certificate purporting to be under the hand of the superintendent of the day industrial school or an officer of the managers, stating that any sum due from a parent or other person for the maintenance of a child is overdue and unpaid shall be evidence of the facts stated therein.

Miscellaneous.

XIV. All expressions used in this Order shall have the same meaning as in the Children Act, 1908.

XV. This Order shall not extend to Scotland or Ireland.

XVI. The Orders in Council of the 20th March, 1877, 25th October, 1881, 12th March, 1903, and 20th November, 1905, are hereby revoked as regards England and Wales.
