

the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty do give the necessary directions herein accordingly.

A. W. FitzRoy.

At the Court at Saint James's, the 2nd day of April, 1909.

PRESENT,

HIS ROYAL HIGHNESS THE PRINCE OF WALES.

Lord President.
Lord Steward.
Lord Haversham.
Lord Pentland.

WHEREAS His Majesty was pleased, by His Commission, dated the second day of March, one thousand nine hundred and nine, to nominate and appoint His Royal Highness the Prince of Wales, in His Majesty's absence from His Realm in Foreign Parts, to hold, on His Majesty's behalf, His Privy Council, and to signify thereat His approval of any matter or thing whereunto His Royal Highness should be so authorized by writing under His Majesty's Sign Manual, and to do further on His Majesty's behalf any matter or thing for the purposes of the said Commission whereunto His Royal Highness should be authorized in manner aforesaid.

And whereas there was this day read at the Council held under the authority of the said Commission a Memorial from the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty, dated the twenty-fourth day of March, one thousand nine hundred and nine, in the words following, viz. :—

"Whereas by section three of the Naval and Marine Pay and Pensions Act, 1865, it is enacted inter alia that all pay, pensions or other allowances in the nature thereof, payable in respect of services in Your Majesty's Naval and Marine Forces to a person being or having been an Officer, seaman or marine therein, shall be paid in such manner and subject to such restrictions, conditions and provisions as are from time to time directed by Order in Council:

"And whereas we are of opinion that the duties and responsibilities devolving upon the Chief Ship's Cooks of Ships and Establishments of Your Majesty's Navy where a General Mess has been introduced merit recognition by the grant of a special allowance:

"We beg leave humbly to recommend that Your Majesty may be graciously pleased by Your Order in Council to sanction an allowance of one shilling a day being paid to Chief Ship's Cooks in charge of General Messes or to other Cook ratings doing duty as such:

"The Lords Commissioners of Your Majesty's Treasury have signified their concurrence in this proposal."

Now, therefore, His Royal Highness the Prince of Wales, being authorized thereto by writing under His Majesty's Sign Manual, has taken the said Memorial into consideration, and doth hereby, by and with the advice of His Majesty's Privy Council, signify His Majesty's approval thereof, and on behalf of His Majesty order, as it is hereby ordered, that the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty do give the necessary directions herein accordingly.

A. W. FitzRoy.

At the Court at Saint James's, the 2nd day of April, 1909.

PRESENT,

HIS ROYAL HIGHNESS THE PRINCE OF WALES.

Lord President.
Lord Steward.
Lord Haversham.
Lord Pentland.

WHEREAS His Majesty was pleased, by His Commission dated the second day of March, one thousand nine hundred and nine, to nominate and appoint His Royal Highness The Prince of Wales, in His Majesty's absence from His Realm in Foreign Parts, to hold on His Majesty's behalf, His Privy Council, and to signify thereat His approval of any matter or thing whereunto His Royal Highness should be so authorized by writing under His Majesty's Sign Manual, and to do further on His Majesty's behalf any matter or thing for the purposes of the said Commission whereunto His Royal Highness should be authorized in manner aforesaid:

And whereas by the Burial Act, 1855, it was, amongst other things, enacted that it should be lawful for His Majesty, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, from time to time to postpone the time appointed by any Order in Council for the discontinuance of burials, or otherwise to vary any Order in Council made under any of the Acts recited in the said Act, or under the said Act (whether the time thereby appointed for the discontinuance of burials thereunder, or other operation of such Order, should or should not have arrived), as to His Majesty, with such advice as aforesaid, might seem fit:

And whereas an Order in Council was made on the fifteenth day of February, one thousand nine hundred and nine, directing the discontinuance of burials, with certain exceptions, in the church of Saint Thomas, Colnbrook, in the county of Buckingham, and in the churchyard:

And whereas it has been represented to His Majesty, by the Local Government Board, that the said Order, so far as it affects the church and churchyard of Saint Thomas, Colnbrook, should be varied:

Now, therefore, His Royal Highness The Prince of Wales, being authorized thereto by writing under His Majesty's Sign Manual, doth hereby, by and with the advice of His Majesty's Privy Council, on behalf of His Majesty, order, as it is hereby ordered, that so much of the Order in Council of the fifteenth February, one thousand nine hundred and nine, as relates to burials in the church of Saint Thomas, Colnbrook, in the county of Buckingham, and in the churchyard, be varied by the addition thereto of the following excepting clause:—

LANGLEY MARISH (Saint Thomas, Colnbrook):—
In the said churchyard, in a grave space in which no interment has heretofore taken place, the burial may be allowed of the
