

the same should be named 'The District Chapelry of Saint Margaret and All Hallows, Orford.'

"And, with the like consent of the said Francis James, Bishop of the said diocese of Liverpool (testified as aforesaid), we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, further represent that it appears to us to be expedient that banns of matrimony should be published, and that marriages, baptisms, churchings, and burials should be solemnized or performed at the said church of Saint Margaret and All Hallows, situate at Orford as aforesaid, and that the fees to be received in respect of the publication of such banns and of the solemnization or performance of the said offices should be paid and belong to the Minister of the same church for the time being: Provided always that nothing herein contained shall be construed as expressing any intention on the part of us, the said Commissioners, to concur in or approve the taking of any fee for the performance of the said office of baptism or for the registration thereof.

"We, therefore, humbly pray that Your Majesty will be graciously pleased to take the premises into Your Royal consideration and to make such Order with respect thereto as to Your Majesty, in Your Royal wisdom, shall seem meet.

"The SCHEDULE to which the foregoing Representation has reference.

"The District Chapelry of Saint Margaret and All Hallows, Orford, being:—

"All that part of the new parish (sometime particular district) of Christ Church, Padgate, in the county of Lancaster and in the diocese of Liverpool, which is bounded upon the north-east and upon the north by the parish of Winwick, upon the west partly by the last named parish and partly by the new parish of Saint Michael, Burton Wood, upon the south partly by the new parish of Saint Ann, Warrington, and partly by the parish of Warrington, all in the said county and diocese, and upon the remaining sides, that is to say, upon the south-east and upon the east, by an imaginary line commencing upon the boundary which divides the said parish of Warrington from the said new parish of Christ Church, Padgate, at the centre of the bridge which carries the northern line of the Cheshire Lines Railway across Padgate Brook, and extending thence first north-westward, then north-eastward, and then northward along the middle of Padgate Brook (thereby following the Parliamentary boundary of the borough of Warrington) for a distance of sixty-seven chains or thereabouts to the boundary which divides the said new parish of Christ Church, Padgate, from the said parish of Winwick."

And whereas the said representation has been approved at the Council held under the authority of the said Commission: Now, therefore, His Royal Highness The Prince of Wales, being authorized thereto by writing under His Majesty's Sign Manual, doth hereby, by and with the advice of His Majesty's Privy Council, on behalf of His Majesty, ratify the said representation, and order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Acts; and His Royal Highness doth further, on behalf of His Majesty, by and with the like advice, direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of Liverpool.
