

other measures relating to the matters aforesaid or any of them in accordance with the provisions of the said Acts or of any of them or of any other Act of Parliament."

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by His Majesty in Council: now, therefore, His Majesty, by and with the advice of His said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Acts: and His Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of Bristol.

A. W. FitzRoy.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 17th day of May, 1909.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the seventh and eighth years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, chapter ninety-four; of the Act of the thirteenth and fourteenth years of Her said late Majesty, chapter ninety-four; and of the Act of the thirty-second and thirty-third years of Her said late Majesty, chapter ninety-four, duly prepared and laid before His Majesty in Council a scheme or representation bearing date the first day of April, in the year one thousand nine hundred and nine, in the words following, that is to say:—

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, acting under the provisions of the Act of the seventh and eighth years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, chapter ninety-four, the Act of the thirteenth and fourteenth years of Her said late Majesty, chapter ninety-four, and the Act of the thirty-second and thirty-third years of Her said late Majesty, chapter ninety-four, have prepared and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council the following scheme or representation for altering the boundaries of the parish of Kentish Town and the parish of Saint Benet and All Saints, Kentish Town, both in the county of Middlesex and in the diocese of London.

"Whereas by the authority of an Order of Her said late Majesty in Council bearing date the twenty-seventh day of July, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-three, and published in the London Gazette on the twenty-eighth day of the same month a part of the parish of Saint Pancras, in the said county of Middlesex and in the said diocese of London, was assigned as a district chapelry to the consecrated church called or known as Kentish Town Chapel, situate within the said parish of Saint Pancras, and the said district chapelry was named 'the District Chapelry of Kentish Town.'

"And whereas by the authority of an Order of Her said late Majesty in Council bearing date the second day of March, in the year one thousand eight hundred and eighty-one, and published in the London Gazette on the fourth day of the same month, a separate district was constituted for spiritual purposes, and the said district was named 'the District of Saint Benet and All Saints, Kentish Town.'

"And whereas the said district chapelry of Kentish Town and the said district of Saint Benet and All Saints, Kentish Town, have become new parishes of the character contemplated by the Act of the sixth and seventh years of Her said late Majesty, chapter thirty-seven, by the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Her said late Majesty, chapter one hundred and four and by the above-mentioned Act of the thirty-second and thirty-third years of Her said late Majesty, chapter ninety-four, and the said district chapelry and district have under the provisions of the Saint Pancras Ecclesiastical Regulation Act, 1868, taken the names of 'the Parish of Kentish Town' and 'the Parish of Saint Benet and All Saints, Kentish Town,' and are hereinafter called by those titles.

"And whereas it has been represented to us, and it appears to us to be expedient that the boundaries of the said parish of Kentish Town and of the said parish of Saint Benet and All Saints, Kentish Town, should be altered in the manner which is hereinafter mentioned.

"Now therefore with the consent of the Right Honourable and Right Reverend Arthur Foley, Bishop of London (in testimony whereof he has signed and sealed this scheme or representation) we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, humbly represent, recommend, and propose that from and after the day of the date of the publication in the London Gazette of an Order of Your Majesty in Council ratifying this scheme or representation and without any assurance in the law other than such duly gazetted Order the boundaries of the said parish of Kentish Town and of the said parish of Saint Benet and All Saints, Kentish Town, shall be altered so that (firstly) all that portion of the said parish of Saint Benet and All Saints, Kentish Town, which is described in the first schedule hereunder written and is delineated and set forth upon the map or plan hereunto annexed and is thereon coloured pink shall be dissevered from such parish and shall be annexed to and shall in future form part of the said parish of Kentish Town; and (secondly) all that portion of the said parish of Kentish Town which is described in the second schedule hereunder written and is delineated and set forth upon the said map or plan hereunto annexed and is thereon coloured green shall be dissevered from such parish and shall be annexed to and shall in future form part of the said parish of Saint Benet and All Saints, Kentish Town; and we further represent, recommend and propose that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from representing, recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid or any of them in accordance with the provisions of the hereinbefore mentioned Acts or any of them or any other Act of Parliament.

"The SCHEDULES to which the foregoing Scheme or Representation has reference.

"THE FIRST SCHEDULE.

"The territory to be dissevered from the parish of Saint Benet and All Saints, Kentish Town, in the county of Middlesex and in the diocese of London, and to be annexed to the parish of Kentish Town, in the same county and diocese, being:—

"All that portion of the said parish of Saint Benet and All Saints, Kentish Town, which is bounded upon the south and upon the south-west by the said parish of Kentish Town, upon the north-west and upon the north-east by the parish of Saint Mary, Brookfield, in the said county and diocese, and upon the remaining side, that is to say, upon the south-east, by an
