

"And whereas the prize money payable in respect of any one year of a ship's commission cannot thus exceed the aggregate of the capitation allowance of one shilling and eight pence or one shilling and three pence per head of complement according to the class of ship concerned :

"And whereas the exigencies of Your Majesty's Naval Service frequently render it necessary that money payable in respect of a subsequent year of commission should be issued within a period of twelve months of the date of commission, so that the capitation allowances due for two separate years are paid in the course of one year :

"We beg leave humbly to recommend that Your Majesty may be graciously pleased by Your Order in Council to sanction payment of the good shooting allowances due in respect of separate years at any time within the period of a ship's commission, provided that the total prize money distributed during the commission does not exceed the aggregate of the capitation allowances payable in respect of each separate year in commission, reckoning for this purpose any portion of an incomplete year as a full year; such sanction to take effect as from the first of January, one thousand nine hundred and seven.

"The Lords Commissioners of Your Majesty's Treasury have signified their concurrence in this proposal."

His Majesty having taken the said Memorial into consideration, was pleased, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, to approve of what is therein proposed. And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty are to give the necessary directions herein accordingly.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 28th day of June, 1909.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by the Burial Act, 1853, as amended by the Burial Act, 1900, it was enacted that, in case it appeared to His Majesty in Council, upon the representation of the Local Government Board, that, for the protection of the public health, the opening of any new burial-ground in any city or town, or within any other limits, save with the previous approval of the Local Government Board, should be prohibited, or that burials in any city or town, or within any other limits, or in any burial-grounds or places of burial, should be wholly discontinued, or should be discontinued subject to any exception or qualification, it should be lawful for His Majesty, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, to order that no new burial-ground should be opened in any city or town, or within such limits, without such previous approval, or (as the case might require) that, after a time mentioned in the Order, burials in such city or town, or within such limits, or in such burial-grounds or places of burial, should be discontinued wholly, or subject to any exceptions or qualifications mentioned in such Order, and so from time to time as circumstances might require; provided always that notice of such representation, and of the time when it should please His Majesty to order that the same be taken into consideration by the Privy Council, should be published in the London Gazette, and should be affixed on the doors of the churches or chapels of, or on some other conspicuous places within, the parishes affected by such representation, one month before such representation was so considered; provided also that no such representation should be made in relation to the burial-ground of any parish until ten days' previous notice of the intention to make such representation should have been given to the Incumbent and vestry clerk or churchwardens of such parish :

And whereas the Local Government Board, after giving to the Incumbent and the churchwardens of the parish of Saint Mary Tavy, ten days' previous notice of their intention to make such representation, made a representation stating that, for the protection of the public health, no new burial-ground should be opened in the civil parish of Mary Tavy, without the previous approval of the Local Government Board, and that burials should be discontinued in the said parish as hereinafter directed :

And whereas His Majesty was pleased, by His Order in Council of the seventeenth day of May last, to give notice of such representation, and to order that the same should be taken into consideration by a Committee of the Lords of His Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council, on the twenty-eighth day of June, one thousand nine hundred and nine, and such Order has been published in the London Gazette, and copies thereof have been affixed, as required by the said Act :

Now, therefore, His Majesty, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, is pleased to order, as it is hereby ordered, that no new burial-ground shall be opened in the said civil parish without the previous approval of the Local Government Board, and that burials in the said parish shall be discontinued as follows, viz. :—

MARY TAVY, DEVONSHIRE.—Forthwith and entirely in the parish church of Saint Mary Tavy; and in that portion of the churchyard attached thereto which was in use prior to the year 1879, except as follows :—

(a) In any vaults or walled graves now existing in the said portion of the churchyard the burial may be allowed of the bodies of Eliza Cole, Elizabeth Ann James, Mary Oxenham, William Dawe and James Maunder at their decease subject to the condition that every coffin buried in such vault or grave be separately enclosed by stonework or brickwork properly cemented :

(b) In the earthen grave now existing in the said portion of the churchyard in which the body of John Mitchell is interred, the burial may be allowed of the body of Jane Mitchell, at her decease subject to the condition that no part of the coffin containing the body shall be at a depth less than three feet below the level of the surface of the ground adjoining the grave.
