GENERAL ORDER of the Local Government Board; Foreign Meat Regulations (Amendment, 1909).

To all Port Sanitary Authorities;—

To all other Sanitary Authorities and Local Authorities as herein defined;—

To all Officers of Customs and Excise;—

To all Medical Officers of Health of the Sanitary Authorities and Local Authorities aforesaid;—

To all Masters of Ships;—

And to all others whom it may concern.

Whereas, in relation to articles of food, the Public Health (Foreign Meat) Regulations, 1908, provide for the use of an Official Certificate, for the Classification of Foreign Meat, and for the combined action of Authorities for the purposes of those Regulations;

And whereas it is expedient that, with respect to the aforesaid matters and to other purposes, the Public Health (Foreign Meat) Regulations, 1908, be altered, and that accordingly such Regulations as are hereinafter set forth be made;

And whereas the Commissioners of Customs and Excise have signified their consent to the said Regulations, so far as they apply to the Officers of Customs and Excise:

Now, therefore, We, the Local Government Board, by this Our Order, and in the exercise of the powers conferred upon Us by the Public Health Act, 1875, the Public Health (London) Act, 1891, the Public Health Act, 1896, and the Public Health (Regulations as to Food) Act, 1907, and of every other power enabling Us in that behalf, do make the following Regulations, that is to say:

Revocation of Article I of former Regulations and substitution of altered Regulation.

ARTICLE I.—Article I of the Public Health (Foreign Meat) Regulations, 1908, shall be revoked: and those Regulations shall be altered so that they shall have effect, with the substitution for the Article so revoked of the following Article, namely:—

“ Interpretation.

“ ARTICLE I.—In these Regulations, unless the contrary intention appears—

“(a) Words importing the masculine gender include females;

“(b) Words in the singular include the plural, and words in the plural include the singular;

“(c) Expressions referring to writing include references to printing and other modes of representing or reproducing words in a visible form;

“(d) The expression ‘cattle’ includes a bull, cow, ox, heifer, calf, ram, ewe, wether, goat, and kid;

“(e) The expression ‘pig’ includes a boar, sow, and hog;

“(f) The expression ‘meat’ means pork, the flesh of cattle, any other edible part of a pig or of cattle, or a substance, compound, material or article of which pork, or the flesh of cattle, or any other edible part of a pig or of cattle is an ingredient;

“(g) The expression ‘foreign’ used in relation to meat means brought from a place situate elsewhere than in the United Kingdom, the Channel Islands, or the Isle of Man;

“(h) The expression ‘Official Certificate’ used in relation to foreign meat or in relation to a box, case, receptacle, or package containing foreign meat, means a certificate, label, mark, stamp, or other voucher which, by a notice published in the London Gazette at any time during the period of twelve months beginning on the first day of October, one thousand nine hundred and eight, or which, by a notice published in the London Gazette after the expiration of that period, is declared to be admissible in the manner, to the extent, and subject to the rules and conditions, prescribed in that notice, as evidence that the cattle or pig from which the meat is derived has been certified by a competent authority in the place of origin to be free from disease at the time of slaughter, and that the meat has been certified by the like authority to have been dressed or prepared, and packed with the needful observance of all requirements for the prevention of danger arising to public health from the meat as an article of food; and, for the purposes of this definition and of any Regulations under the Public Health (Regulations as to Food) Act, 1907, every Official Certificate which, by a notice published in the London Gazette at any time during the period of twelve months, beginning on the first day of October, one thousand nine hundred and eight, is declared to be admissible as aforesaid, shall, notwithstanding anything prescribed in the notice, continue to be so admissible until, by a further notice to be published in the London Gazette, the said Official Certificate is declared to be no longer so admissible;

“(i) The expression ‘Foreign Meat of Class I’ means foreign meat in the form

“(A) Of scrap meat, namely, meat which, whether it is fresh, or has, before importation, been subjected to a process of freezing or other refrigeration, or to chemical or other treatment, with or without the addition of any preservative or colouring substance—

“(i) consists of scraps, trimmings or other pieces (whether with or without bone in its natural state of attachment) of such shape or in such condition as to afford insufficient means of identification with definite parts of a carcase; and

“(ii) has not, before importation, been made ready for human consumption in the form of a sausage, or of another prepared or manufactured article of food;

“ or

“(B) Of tripe, namely, any edible part of the stomach, or

“Of a tongue, or kidney,

to which formalin, or a solution, or other preparation of, or comprising formic aldehyde; or a compound containing fluorine or boron; or salicylic acid, formic acid, sulphurous acid, benzoic acid, or any compound of any such acid has been applied;

“ or

“(c) Of severed parts of the carcase of a pig, or of other edible parts of a pig, which have not, before importation, been salted, cured, pickled, dried, or smoked, or otherwise prepared in the manner in which bacon or ham is ordinarily prepared, and which are not contained in a box, case, receptacle, or package with an Official Certificate impressed thereon, or affixed or attached thereto;

“ or

“(D) Of severed parts of the carcase of a pig, or of other edible parts of a pig, which have, before importation, been salted, cured, pickled, dried, or smoked, or otherwise prepared in the manner in which bacon or ham is ordinarily prepared, and which are not contained in a box, case, receptacle, or package with an Official Certificate impressed thereon, or affixed or attached thereto, and which, in the case of the severed parts of the carcase, are without the lymphatic glands about those parts in their natural position;

“or

“(e) Of meat which, whether derived from cattle or a pig, is in the form of a carcase, or of a part of a carcase, and, in either case, comprises the ribs, and is without any such membrane as, in its natural position, forms the lining of the cavity enclosed by the ribs;

“(f) The expression ‘Foreign Meat of Class II’ means foreign meat which, being in the form of the entire carcase of a pig, is without the head in its natural state of attachment to the carcase, or is without the lymphatic glands about the throat, or about any other part of the carcase, in their natural position;

“(k) The expression ‘Foreign Meat of Class III’ means foreign meat which is in the form of severed parts of the carcase of a pig, or of other edible parts of a pig, which is not and does not comprise any foreign meat of Class I, or any foreign meat of Class II, and which is contained in a box, case, receptacle, or package with an Official Certificate impressed thereon, or affixed or attached thereto;

“(l) The expression ‘Foreign Meat Unclassed’ means foreign meat other than foreign meat of Class I, foreign meat of Class II, or foreign meat of Class III;

“(m) The expression ‘importer’ means any person in the United Kingdom who, either as owner or consignee, agent or broker, is entitled to the possession, custody, or control of any foreign meat;

“(n) The expression ‘ship’ includes a vessel or boat;

“(o) The expression ‘Officer of Customs and Excise’ includes any person acting under the authority of the Commissioners of Customs and Excise;

“(p) The expression ‘Master’ used in relation to a ship includes the officer, or other person for the time being in charge or command of the ship;

“(q) The expression ‘Sanitary Authority’ means every Port Sanitary Authority, and every Council of a Municipal Borough or other Urban District, and every Rural District Council whose borough or district includes or abuts on any part of a Customs port which part is not within the jurisdiction of a Port Sanitary Authority;

“(r) The expression ‘the District’ means the District of a Sanitary Authority;

“(s) The expression ‘Medical Officer of Health’ includes any duly qualified Medical Practitioner appointed or employed by a Sanitary Authority to act in the execution of these Regulations; and any other person appointed or employed by the Sanitary Authority under these Regulations to exercise any powers, or to discharge any duties assigned to the Medical Officer of Health;

“(t) The expression ‘Local Authority’ means every Council of a Municipal Borough or other Urban District and every Rural District Council, not being a Sanitary

Authority within the meaning of these Regulations, and includes the Common Council of the City of London and every Council of a Metropolitan Borough;

“(u) The expression ‘area’ used in relation to a Local Authority means the area subject to the jurisdiction of the Local Authority for the purposes of the Public Health Act, 1875, or of the Public Health (London) Act, 1891, as the case may be.”

Commencement and Extent of Operation of Amending Regulations.

ARTICLE II.—These Regulations shall come into operation on the thirtieth day of September, one thousand nine hundred and nine, and then and thereafter the Public Health (Foreign Meat) Regulations, 1908, and any Order theretofore made in pursuance of Article XVI of those Regulations shall apply and have effect and shall be enforced and executed in such form and in such manner as will give full effect to the alterations made by these Regulations, and as if, throughout the Public Health (Foreign Meat) Regulations, 1908, references to an Officer of Customs and Excise were substituted for references to an Officer of Customs, and as if, throughout any such Order, references to the Public Health (Foreign Meat) Regulations, 1908, as altered by these Regulations, were substituted for references to the Public Health (Foreign Meat) Regulations, 1908, and references to an Officer of Customs and Excise were substituted for references to an Officer of Customs.

Short Title.

Article III.—These Regulations may be cited as “The Public Health (Foreign Meat) Amending Regulations, 1909.”

Given under the Seal of Office of the Local Government Board, this twenty-seventh day of September, in the year one thousand nine hundred and nine.

John Burns,

President.

S. B. Provis, Secretary.

Notice.—The Public Health Act, 1896, provides by subsection 3 of section 1 that if any person wilfully neglects or refuses to obey or carry out, or obstructs the execution of any regulation made under any of the enactments mentioned in that Act he shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding One Hundred Pounds, and in the case of a continuing offence to a further penalty not exceeding Fifty Pounds for every day during which the offence continues.

The power of making regulations under the Public Health Act, 1896, and the enactments mentioned in that Act is enlarged by the Public Health (Regulations as to Food) Act, 1907.
