

shall read it aloud or otherwise submit it to each witness, and shall request him to attach his signature as an indication that the report correctly represents the effect of his statements.

5. On receipt of a report from an officer, the Board shall scrutinise the same and may make such further inquiry or take such further steps as they deem necessary for the purpose of examining into the accuracy of the particulars contained therein, and in the event of the Board's being satisfied that the case is one for a notification under section three of the Act the notification shall be made by the Board in the form contained in the schedule annexed hereto or in a similar form, and shall be signed by the Chairman, or by the Secretary or other officer of the Board duly authorised for the purpose.

Provided that where notification by telegram is deemed necessary by the Board, nothing herein contained shall make it illegal to accept such notification embracing the particulars specified in the schedule annexed hereto as a valid notification under the Act; but it shall be the duty of the Board to confirm such notification in writing forthwith.

A copy of every such notification, and a list of the persons to whom it was sent, shall be entered by the Board in a register to be kept for the purpose.

THE FAIRS ACT, 1873.

HATHERLEIGH FAIRS.

Whereas on the 14th August, 1909, a representation was made to me, as Secretary of State for the Home Department, by the Rural District Council of Okehampton to the effect that it would be for the convenience and advantage of the public that the Fairs which have been held annually in the Town of Hatherleigh on the 21st day of May, the 22nd day of June, the 4th day of September, and the 8th day of November, should in future be held on the third Tuesday in the month of May, the third Tuesday in the month of June, the first Tuesday in the month of September, and the second Tuesday in the month of November, respectively:

And whereas notice of the said representation and of the time when the same would be taken into consideration has been duly published in pursuance of the Fairs Act, 1873:

And whereas on such representation and consideration it appears to me that it would be for the convenience and advantage of the public that the said Fairs should in future be held on the third Tuesday in the month of May, the third Tuesday in the month of June, the first Tuesday in the month of September, and the second Tuesday in the month of November, respectively:

Now therefore I, as Secretary of State for the Home Department, in exercise of the powers vested in me by the Fairs Act, 1873, do hereby order that the Fairs which have been held annually in the Town of Hatherleigh on the 21st day of May, the 22nd day of June, the 4th day of September, and the 8th day of November, shall in future be held on the third Tuesday in the month of May, the third Tuesday in the month of June, the first Tuesday in the month of September, and the second Tuesday in the month of November, respectively.

Given under my hand at Whitehall, this 26th day of October, 1909.
