FRIDAY, NOVEMBER 12, 1909.

Whitehall, November 9, 1909.

The following Address was presented to the King, on Thursday, the 4th November, on the occasion of the opening by His Majesty of the Jubilee Extension Buildings of the National Hospital for the Paralysed and Epileptic, Queen-square, Bloomsbury:—

May it please Your Majesty.

It is my privilege on behalf of the Governing Body of the National Hospital and of all those who have helped to make this work a success to bid You welcome, and to ask Your Majesty to accept our dutiful and humble thanks for graciously coming here to-day to open the Jubilee Extensions.

This is not the first occasion on which the National Hospital has been honoured by a visit from Your Majesty. Your Majesty will remember that in the year 1885 as Prince of Wales, You performed the opening ceremony, when the main building of the hospital was completed. That building which had been begun in 1883 at the instance of His Royal Highness the late Duke of Albany was not finished until after his lamented death, and when it was opened by Your Majesty in 1885 it was with the sanction of Her Majesty Queen Victoria dedicated as a memorial to him, and it will be gratifying to Your Majesty to hear that the success attained is largely due to the affection in which the memory of the late Duke of Albany is held.

As Your Majesty is aware it is now fifty years since the National Hospital was founded. During that fifty years the hospital has grown steadily from very modest beginnings to be one of the largest institutions of its kind in the world, and one of the principal centres for the treatment and study of diseases of the nervous system. Patients are received here in large numbers from all parts of the world and the practice of the Hospital, under the direction of the eminent members of the honorary medical staff who place their services at its disposal, attracts large numbers of medical graduates from all quarters of the globe.

Thanks to the generosity of the charitable public it has been possible to keep the National Hospital up to the high standard of efficiency demanded by modern science, but as Your Majesty well knows, the system of maintaining hospitals by voluntary contributions of which this country is justly proud, involves constant demands on the goodwill of the charitable, and it is difficult enough to collect sufficient money to cover the ordinary expenses of an institution of this nature, without leaving any margin for extraordinary expenditure such as is at times imperative in order to cope with the increasing work of the Hospital.

It became obvious some time ago that the out-patient department which was large enough to accommodate the 19,000 attendances which were made in 1881 was inadequate for the 40,000 which is now the yearly average. The electrical department, the consulting rooms, the dispensary and the massage and electrical class rooms were all inadequate, and above all the accommodation for the female nurses was not at all up to modern requirements. A sub-committee of the Board of Management was therefore appointed to consider what steps should be taken to remedy these defects, with instructions to confine their recommendations to alterations which would increase the efficiency of the Hospital without adding materially to the cost of maintenance.

When this scheme of alterations had been carefully thought out, it was placed before a special general meeting of the Governors of the Hospital, who considered that to carry it out would be the most suitable way to celebrate the Jubilee of the Institution. The Governors were fortunate in enlisting the sympathy of Her Royal Highness the Duchess of Albany, who accepted the chairmanship of the Jubilee Committee and who has worked for the cause with an energy and devotion for which the Governors can never be sufficiently grateful.

Her Royal Highness, in making her appeal, has specially emphasised the national character of the work of the Hospital which is carried on for the benefit of sufferers from nervous diseases in all parts of Your Majesty's broad dominions, and I am glad to say the appeal has been responded to in the spirit in which it was made. The Buildings which Your Majesty is now asked to declare open, together with a Reserve Fund of £10,000, are the results.

Frederick Macmillan,

Chairman of the Board of Management.

To which Address His Majesty was pleased to return the following gracious Answer:—

"I desire to thank you heartily for your loyal Address of welcome, and to assure you that it gives Me the highest pleasure to open the Jubilee Extension Buildings of this great Hospital, which is associated with the memory of My dear brother, in which My dear sister-in-law, the Duchess of Albany, has always taken so much interest, and for which she has done so much.

"I well remember My previous visit in 1885, to which you refer, and I know and appreciate the admirable work which has been performed by your Hospital during the last fifty years. The remarkable growth in the number of attendances, and the increase in the accommodation required both for in and out-patients is evidence of the utility of your work and of the zeal and energy with which it is carried on. When I consider the nature of the maladies for which provision is made in your Hospital, I do not wonder that it should have aroused the charitable instincts of the benevolent and called forth the enthusiastic service and devotion of your medical and nursing staff. Sufferers from paralysis and epilepsy are so helpless, so utterly dependent for their very existence on the exertions of others, that without such institutions as the National Hospital, many of the poor who can afford no special appliances and no efficient medical attendance, must inevitably be reduced, with their families, to the greatest misery.

"I trust that, as the nature of your efforts is better known, the springs of charity will flow even more abundantly in the future than in the past in aid of your work.

"In these fine buildings which I now declare open that good work will, I am convinced, be carried on even more efficiently than in bygone years, and I pray that with the blessing of God the utility and success of your labours may ever increase.

Whitehall, November 9, 1909.

The KING was pleased on Thursday, the 4th November, on the occasion of the opening of the Jubilee Extension Buildings of the National Hospital for the Paralysed and Epileptic, Queen Square, Bloomsbury, to confer the honour of Knighthood upon Frederick Orridge Macmillan, Esq., Chairman of the Board of Management of the said Institution.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

Lord Northcote.
Mr. Secretary Gladstone.
Mr. Harcourt.
Sir J. C. Bigham.

WHEREAS by Treaty, grant, usage, sufferance, and other lawful means His Majesty has power and jurisdiction within the territories of Africa known as the East Africa, Uganda, and Nyasaland Protectorates (in this Order referred to as "the said Protectorates"):

And whereas it is expedient that a Court should be established for the hearing and determining of appeals from His Majesty's Courts in the said Protectorates:

Now, therefore, His Majesty, by virtue and in exercise of the powers in this behalf by "The Foreign Jurisdiction Act, 1890," or otherwise in His Majesty vested, is pleased, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, to order, and it is hereby ordered, as follows:—

1. This Order may be cited as the "Eastern African Protectorates (Court of Appeal) Order in Council, 1909."

2. A Court shall be constituted, called His Majesty's Court of Appeal for Eastern Africa (in this Order referred to as "The Court of Appeal"), which shall be a superior Court of record, and shall, for the purposes of and subject to the provisions of this Order, have full power to determine in accordance with this Order any questions necessary to be determined for the purpose of doing justice in the case before the Court, and shall exercise such appellate jurisdiction and such other powers in relation to the High Courts and other Courts in the said Protectorates as may from time to time be conferred by Ordinances passed under the provisions of the Orders in Council relating to the said Protectorates respectively.

(2) Rules of Court when allowed by the Secretary of State shall have effect as if contained in this Order: Provided that in case of urgency declared in the rules, the same shall take effect before such allowance, and shall continue to have effect unless and until they are modified or altered by the Secretary of State, and are published by the Court of Appeal as so modified or altered.

(3) Rules of Court made under this Order and allowed by the Secretary of State may, with the approval of the Secretary of State, be rescinded, revoked, amended, or varied by Rules of Court.

(2) Every judgment decree, rule or order of the former Court which shall have been duly perfected at any time before the commencement of this Order may be executed and enforced and, if necessary, amended or discharged by the Court of Appeal in the same manner as if it had been a judgment decree, rule or order of the said Court of Appeal:

(3) All appeals, matters and proceedings whatsoever, whether civil or criminal, which shall be pending in the former Court at the commencement of this Order shall be continued and concluded before the Court of Appeal according to the form and manner of procedure of the said Court of Appeal.

11. This Order shall commence and have effect on such day as may be fixed by notification by the Secretary of State, published in the London Gazette.

And the Earl of Crewe, K.G., one of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, is to give the necessary directions herein accordingly.

A. W. Fitz Roy.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 15th day of February, 1909.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

Archbishop of York.
Lord President.
Lord Chamberlain.
Lord Sandhurst.
Lord Northcote.
Mr. Secretary Gladstone.
Mr. Harcourt.
Sir J. C. Bigham.

WHEREAS by Treaty, grant, usage, sufferance, and other lawful means, His Majesty has power and jurisdiction within the East Africa, Uganda and Nyasaland Protectorates (in this Order referred to as "the said Protectorates");

And whereas by an Order in Council bearing even date with this Order provision has been made for appeals from His Majesty's Courts in the said Protectorates to His Majesty's Court of Appeal for Eastern Africa;

And whereas it is expedient that further provision should be made for regulating appeals from His Majesty's Court of Appeal for Eastern Africa to His Majesty in Council;

Now therefore, His Majesty, by virtue and in exercise of the powers in this behalf by "The Foreign Jurisdiction Act, 1890," or otherwise in His Majesty vested, is pleased, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, to order, and it is hereby ordered as follows:—

1. This Order may be cited as the "Eastern African Protectorates (Appeal to Privy Council) Order in Council 1909."

2. In this Order, unless the context otherwise requires:—

"Appeal" means Appeal to His Majesty in Council;

"His Majesty" includes His Majesty's heirs and successors;

"Judgment" includes decree, order, sentence, or decision;

"Court" means either the Full Court or one or more Judges of His Majesty's Court of Appeal for Eastern Africa according as the matter in question is one which under the Rules and Practice of His Majesty's Court of Appeal for Eastern Africa properly appertains to a Full Court or to one or more Judges;

“Record” means the aggregate of papers relating to an Appeal (including the pleadings, proceedings, evidence, and judgments) proper to be laid before His Majesty in Council on the hearing of the Appeal;

“Registrar” means the Registrar or other proper officer having the custody of the Records in the Court appealed from;

“Month” means calendar month;

Words in the singular include the plural, and words in the plural include the singular.

3. Subject to the provisions of this Order, an Appeal shall lie:—

(a) as of right, from any final judgment of the Court, where the matter in dispute on the Appeal amounts to or is of the value of six hundred and fifty pounds sterling or upwards, or where the Appeal involves, directly or indirectly, some claim or question to or respecting property or some civil right amounting to or of the value of ten thousand rupees or upwards; and

(b) at the discretion of the Court, from any other judgment of the Court, whether final or interlocutory, if, in the opinion of the Court, the question involved in the Appeal is one which, by reason of its great general or public importance, or otherwise, ought to be submitted to His Majesty in Council for decision.

4. Where in any action or other proceeding no final judgment can be duly given in consequence of a difference of opinion between the judges, the final judgment may be entered pro forma on the application of any party to such action or other proceeding according to the opinion of the Senior Member of the Court, or, in his absence, of the Member of the Court next in seniority, but such judgment shall only be deemed final for purposes of an Appeal therefrom, and not for any other purpose.

5. Applications to the Court for leave to appeal shall be made by motion or petition within twenty-one days in the case of applications from East Africa or Uganda and within three months in the case of applications from Nyasaland from the date of the judgment to be appealed from, and the Applicant shall give the opposite party notice of his intended application.

6. Leave to appeal under Article 3 shall only be granted by the Court in the first instance:—

(a) upon condition of the Appellant, within a period to be fixed by the Court, but not exceeding three months from the date of the hearing of the application for leave to appeal, entering into good and sufficient security, to the satisfaction of the Court, in a sum not exceeding five thousand rupees, for the due prosecution of the Appeal, and the payment of all such costs as may become payable to the Respondent in the event of the Appellant not obtaining an order granting him final leave to appeal, or of the Appeal being dismissed for non-prosecution, or of His Majesty in Council ordering the Appellant to pay the Respondent's costs of the Appeal (as the case may be); and

(b) upon such other conditions (if any) as to the time or times within which the Appellant shall take the necessary steps for the purpose of procuring the preparation of the Record and the dispatch thereof to England as the Court, having regard to all the circumstances of the case, may think it reasonable to impose.

7. Where the judgment appealed from requires the Appellant to pay money or perform a duty, the Court shall have power, when granting leave to appeal, either to direct that the said judgment shall be carried into execution or that the execution thereof shall be suspended pending the Appeal, as to the Court shall seem just, and in case the Court shall direct the said judgment to be carried into execution, the person in whose favour it was given shall, before the execution thereof, enter into good and sufficient security, to the satisfaction of the Court, for the due performance of such Order as His Majesty in Council shall think fit to make thereon.

8. The preparation of the Record shall be subject to the supervision of the Court, and the parties may submit any disputed question arising in connection therewith to the decision of the Court, and the Court shall give such directions thereon as the justice of the case may require.

9. The Registrar, as well as the parties and their legal Agents, shall endeavour to exclude from the Record all documents (more particularly such as are merely formal) that are not relevant to the subject-matter of the Appeal, and generally, to reduce the bulk of the Record as far as practicable, taking special care to avoid the duplication of documents and the unnecessary repetition of headings and other merely formal parts of documents; but the documents omitted to be copied or printed shall be enumerated in a list to be placed after the index or at the end of the Record.

10. Where in the course of the preparation of a Record one party objects to the inclusion of a document on the ground that it is unnecessary or irrelevant, and the other party nevertheless insists upon its being included, the Record, as finally printed (whether in any of the said Protectorates, or in England), shall, with a view to the subsequent adjustment of the costs of and incidental to such document, indicate in the index of papers, or otherwise, the fact that, and the party by whom, the inclusion of the document was objected to.

11. The Record shall be printed in accordance with the Rules set forth in the schedule hereto. It may be so printed either in any of the said Protectorates or in England.

12. Where the Record is printed in any of the said Protectorates, the Registrar shall, at the expense of the Appellant, transmit to the Registrar of the Privy Council forty copies of such Record, one of which copies he shall certify to be correct by signing his name on, or initialling, every eighth page thereof and by affixing thereto the seal of the Court.

13. Where the Record is to be printed in England, the Registrar shall, at the expense of the Appellant, transmit to the Registrar of the Privy Council one certified copy of such Record, together with an index of all the papers and exhibits in the case. No other certified copies of the Record shall be transmitted to the Agents in England by or on behalf of the parties to the Appeal.

14. Where part of the Record is printed in any of the said Protectorates and part is to be printed in England, Articles 12 and 13 shall, as far as practicable, apply to such parts as are printed in the said Protectorate and such as are to be printed in England respectively.

15. The reasons given by the judge, or any of the judges, for or against any judgment pronounced in the course of the proceedings out of which the Appeal arises shall by such judge or judges be communicated in writing to the Registrar, and shall by him be transmitted to the Registrar of the Privy Council at the same time when the Record is transmitted.

16. Where there are two or more applications for leave to appeal arising out of the same matter, and the Court is of opinion that it would be for the convenience of the Lords of the Judicial Committee and all parties concerned that the Appeals should be consolidated, the Court may direct the Appeals to be consolidated and grant leave to appeal by a single order.

17. An Appellant who has obtained an order granting him conditional leave to appeal may at any time prior to the making of an order granting him final leave to appeal withdraw his Appeal on such terms as to costs and otherwise as the Court may direct.

18. Where an Appellant, having obtained an order granting him conditional leave to appeal, and having complied with the conditions imposed on him by such order, fails thereafter to apply with due diligence to the Court for an order granting him final leave to appeal, the Court may, on an application in that behalf made by the Respondent, rescind the order granting conditional leave to appeal, notwithstanding the Appellant's compliance with the conditions imposed by such order, and may give such directions as to the costs of the Appeal and the security entered into by the Appellant as the Court shall think fit, or make such further or other order in the premises as, in the opinion of the Court, the justice of the case requires.

19. On an application for final leave to appeal, the Court may inquire whether notice, or sufficient notice, of the application has been given by the Appellant to all parties concerned, and, if not satisfied as to the notices given, may defer the granting of the final leave to appeal, or may give such other directions in the matter as in the opinion of the Court the justice of the case requires.

20. An Appellant who has obtained final leave to appeal shall prosecute his Appeal in accordance with the Rules for the time being regulating the general practice and procedure in Appeals to His Majesty in Council.

21. Where an Appellant, having obtained final leave to appeal, desires, prior to the dispatch of the Record to England, to withdraw his Appeal, the Court may, upon an application in that behalf made by the Appellant, grant him a certificate to the effect that the Appeal has been withdrawn, and the Appeal shall thereupon be deemed, as from the date of such certificate, to stand dismissed without express Order of His Majesty in Council, and the costs of the Appeal and the security entered into by the Appellant shall be dealt with in such manner as the Court may think fit to direct.

22. Where an Appellant, having obtained final leave to appeal, fails to show due diligence in taking all necessary steps for the purpose of procuring the dispatch of the Record to England, the Respondent may, after giving the Appellant due notice of his intended application, apply to the Court for a certificate that the Appeal has not been effectually prosecuted by the Appellant, and if the Court sees fit to grant such a certificate, the Appeal shall be deemed, as from the date of such certificate, to stand dismissed for non-prosecution without express Order of His Majesty in Council, and the costs of the Appeal and the security entered into by the Appellant shall be dealt with in such manner as the Court may think fit to direct.

23. Where at any time between the order granting final leave to appeal and the dispatch of the Record to England the Record becomes defective by reason of the death, or change of status, of a party to the Appeal, the Court may, notwithstanding the order granting final leave to appeal, on an application in that behalf made by any person interested, grant a certificate showing who, in the opinion of the Court, is the proper person to be substituted or entered on the Record in place of, or in addition to, the party who has died or undergone a change of status, and the name of such person shall thereupon be deemed to be so substituted or entered on the Record as aforesaid without express Order of His Majesty in Council.

24. Where the Record subsequently to its dispatch to England becomes defective by reason of the death, or change of status, of a party to the Appeal, the Court shall, upon an application in that behalf made by any person interested, cause a certificate to be transmitted to the Registrar of the Privy Council showing who, in the opinion of the Court, is the proper person to be substituted, or entered, on the Record, in place of or in addition to, the party who has died or undergone a change of status.

25. The case of each party to the Appeal may be printed either in any of the said Protectorates or in England, and shall, in either event, be printed in accordance with the Rules set forth in the schedule hereto, every tenth line thereof being numbered in the margin, and shall be signed by at least one of the Counsel who attends at the hearing of the Appeal, or by the party himself if he conducts his Appeal in person.

26. The case shall consist of paragraphs numbered consecutively, and shall state, as concisely as possible, the circumstances out of which the Appeal arises, the contentions to be urged by the party lodging the same, and the reasons of Appeal. Reference by page and line to the relevant portions of the Record as printed shall, as far as practicable, be printed in the margin, and care shall be taken to avoid, as far as possible, the reprinting in the case of long extracts from the Record. The taxing officer, in taxing the costs of the Appeal, shall, either of his own motion, or at the instance of the opposite party, inquire into any unnecessary prolixity in the case, and shall disallow the costs occasioned thereby.

27. Where the Judicial Committee directs a party to bear the costs of an Appeal incurred in any of the said Protectorates, such costs shall be taxed by the proper officer of the Court in accordance with the rules for the time being regulating taxation in the Court.

28. The Court shall conform with and execute any Order which His Majesty in Council may think fit to make on an Appeal from a judgment of the Court in like manner as any original judgment of the Court should or might have been executed.

29. Nothing in this Order contained shall be deemed to interfere with the right of His Majesty, upon the humble Petition of any person aggrieved by any judgment of the Court, to admit his Appeal therefrom upon such conditions as His Majesty in Council shall think fit to impose.

30. This Order shall commence and have effect on such day as may be fixed by notification in the London Gazette by one of his Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State.
