At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 18th day of October, 1909.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

Lord President.
Master of the Horse.
Lord Sandhurst.
Mr. Samuel.
Sir Hudson Kearley.
Mr. James Stuart.

WHEREAS the Order of Her late Majesty in Council, dated the ninth day of May, one thousand eight hundred and ninety-one, has been amended by the Order of Her late Majesty in Council, dated the thirtieth day of July, one thousand eight hundred and ninety-one:

And whereas it is expedient further to amend such Order:

Now therefore, His Majesty, by virtue of the powers by the Foreign Jurisdiction Act, 1890, or otherwise in His Majesty vested, is pleased, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, to order, and it is hereby ordered as follows:—

1. This Order may be cited as the Bechuanaland Protectorate and Southern Rhodesia Amending Order in Council, 1909.

2. The fifth section of the said Order in Council, dated the ninth day of May, one thousand eight hundred and ninety-one, as amended by the said Order in Council, dated the thirtieth day of July, one thousand eight hundred and ninety-one, shall be and is hereby revoked, but without prejudice to anything lawfully done thereunder.

3. In lieu of the section so revoked the following section shall be taken to be part of the said Order in Council of the ninth day of

May, one thousand eight hundred and ninety-one, and shall be read as the fifth section thereof.

"5. Every Proclamation of the High Commissioner shall be published in the Gazette, and shall from and after the date of such publication, or from and after such other date as may be mentioned in such Proclamation and thereafter until disallowed by His Majesty or repealed or modified by any subsequent Proclamation, have effect as if contained in this Order."

4. No Proclamation issued before the date of the commencement of this Order by the High Commissioner for South Africa, under or by virtue of the powers conferred by the said Order in Council of the ninth day of May, one thousand eight hundred and ninety-one, shall be deemed to be invalid by reason only of the omission therefrom of any express provision as to the date of the taking effect, thereof, but any Proclamation so issued shall, unless it is otherwise expressly provided, be deemed to have taken effect from the date of the publication thereof in the Cape of Good Hope Government Gazette, or in the Official Gazette of the High Commissioner for South Africa, as the case may be.

5. This Order shall be published in the Official Gazette of the High Commissioner for South Africa, and shall thereupon commence and come into operation, and the High Commissioner shall give directions for the publication of this Order at such places, and in such manner, and for such time or times as he thinks proper for giving due publicity thereto within the limits of the said Order in Council of the ninth day of May, one thousand eight hundred and ninety-one.

6. His Majesty may from time to time revoke, alter, add to, or amend this Order.

Almeric FitzRoy.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 22nd day of November, 1909.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by section twenty-six of the Pluralities Act, 1838, after reciting that "Whereas in some instances tithings, hamlets, chapelries, and other places or districts may be separated from the parishes or mother churches to which they belong, with great advantage, and places altogether extra-parochial may in some instances with advantage be annexed to parishes or districts to which they are contiguous, or be constituted separate parishes for ecclesiastical purposes," it is, amongst other things, enacted "That when with respect to his own diocese it shall appear to the Archbishop of the Province, or when the Bishop of any diocese shall represent to the said Archbishop that any such tithing, hamlet, chapelry, place or district within the diocese of such Archbishop, or the diocese of such Bishop; as the case may be, may be advantageously separated from any parish or mother church
