

Blaen Gwrach which is hereinbefore mentioned and hereinafter recommended and proposed will render the same benefice qualified for that augmentation out of funds under our control which is hereinafter mentioned, and will therefore in our opinion tend to make better provision for the cure of souls in the parish or district in or in respect of which the right of patronage or advowson so recommended and proposed to be transferred as aforesaid arises or exists, that is to say, in the parish of Glynccorrwg with Blaen Gwrach.

"And whereas we have agreed and undertaken to provide and pay to the Incumbent of the said benefice of Glynccorrwg with Blaen Gwrach and his successors for ever an annual sum of ninety-two pounds in augmentation of the income of the said benefice as from the date upon which the same benefice shall become qualified as aforesaid for such augmentation.

"And whereas the said grant of an annual sum of ninety-two pounds will, after the publication in the London Gazette of an Order of Your Majesty in Council ratifying this scheme be made and secured by an Instrument to be executed by us under our common seal in accordance with the provisions of the Act of the twenty-ninth and thirtieth years of Her said late Majesty, chapter one hundred and eleven.

"Now therefore with the consent of the said John Edwards Vaughan, being the person whose consent as Patron is required by the provisions of the hereinbefore mentioned Acts and of the Act of the first and second years of Her said late Majesty, chapter one hundred and six (in testimony of which consent he has signed and sealed this scheme), and with the consent of the said Joshua Pritchard, Bishop of Llandaff (in testimony whereof he has signed this scheme and sealed the same with his episcopal seal), we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, humbly recommend and propose that upon and from the day of the date of the publication in the London Gazette of any Order of Your Majesty in Council ratifying this scheme and without any conveyance or assurance in the law other than such duly gazetted Order the whole advowson or perpetual right of patronage of and presentation to the said benefice of Glynccorrwg with Blaen Gwrach shall be transferred to the said Joshua Pritchard, Bishop of Llandaff, and his successors in the same Bishoprick, and shall thereupon and thenceforth become and be absolutely vested in and shall and may from time to time be exercised by the said Joshua Pritchard, Bishop of Llandaff, and his successors in the same Bishoprick for ever.

"And we further recommend and propose that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any further or other measures relating to the matters aforesaid or any of them in accordance with the provisions of the said Acts or of any of them or of any other Act of Parliament."

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by His Majesty in Council: now, therefore, His Majesty, by and with the advice of His said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Acts, and His Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of Llandaff.

At the Court at Sandringham, the 2nd day of December, 1909.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the fifth and sixth years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, chapter one hundred and eight, and of the Act of the twenty-first and twenty-second years of Her said late Majesty, chapter fifty-seven, which Acts are known as the Ecclesiastical Leasing Acts, duly prepared and laid before His Majesty in Council a scheme bearing date the eighteenth day of November, in the year one thousand nine hundred and nine, in the words following, that is to say:--

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the fifth and sixth years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, chapter one hundred and eight, and of the Act of the twenty-first and twenty-second years of Her said late Majesty, chapter fifty-seven, which Acts are known as 'The Ecclesiastical Leasing Acts,' have prepared and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council the following scheme relating to the rectory and parish of Chelsea, in the county of Middlesex and diocese of London.

"Whereas the annual value of the benefice of Chelsea, that is to say, of the rectory of the parish of Chelsea aforesaid (hereinafter called the said benefice), has been improved by means of certain sales of the glebe lands of the said benefice, which sales were effected under the authority of the said Acts by former Rectors or Incumbents and by the present Rector or Incumbent of the said benefice of Chelsea.

"And whereas the purchase money received in respect of the sales of the said glebe lands and made payable to us, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, has from time to time as the same has been received by us been invested in accordance with the provisions in that behalf contained in the said Acts, and of such investments there remain standing in the name of us the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, first, a sum of nine hundred and twenty-five pounds eighteen shillings and one penny London County three pounds per centum stock, and second, a sum of thirty-six thousand and seventy-six pounds fourteen shillings and elevenpence India three pounds per centum stock, all which said sums of stock are now held by us in trust to pay the Rector or Incumbent for the time being of the said benefice the annual interest or dividends from time to time arising or accruing therefrom or thereupon but subject nevertheless to the provisions contained in the said Acts with respect to making a certain portion of the improved value arising to the said benefice from the said sales payable to us for the benefit of our common fund to be applied as in the said Acts mentioned.

"And whereas the improvement in the annual value of the said benefice arising from or by means of the said sales exceeds the annual sum of one thousand pounds and after the appropriation hereinafter recommended to us, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, for the benefit of our common fund of a portion, namely, thirty-three thousand three hundred and thirty-three pounds six shillings and eightpence, of the sum of India three pounds per centum stock hereinbefore mentioned the average annual income of the said benefice will not be left at a less sum than six hundred pounds.

"And whereas the said benefice is now full, the Venerable Henry Edward James Bevan,
