

"And whereas the said grant of seven hundred pounds sterling will after the publication in the London Gazette of an Order of Your Majesty in Council ratifying this scheme be made and secured by an Instrument to be executed by us, the said Commissioners, under our common seal in accordance with the provisions of the Act of the twenty-ninth and thirtieth years of Her said late Majesty, chapter one hundred and eleven.

"And whereas the said George Watkinson has nominated the Bishop of Wakefield as the person to whom and to whose successors he desires that the first, third and every subsequent turn of the patronage of the said proposed district or new parish and the nomination of the Minister or Incumbent thereof shall be assigned, and himself, the said George Watkinson, as the person to whom he desires that the second turn of the patronage of the said proposed district or new parish and the nomination of the Minister or Incumbent thereof shall be assigned.

"Now therefore with the consent of the Right Reverend George Rodney, Bishop of Wakefield (in testimony whereof he has signed and sealed this scheme) we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, humbly recommend and propose that all those portions of the said parochial chapelry of Coley, and of the said new parish of Lightcliffe, which are described in the schedule hereunder written, all which portions together with the boundaries thereof are delineated and set forth on the map or plan hereunto annexed, shall upon and from the day of the date of the publication in the London Gazette of any Order of Your Majesty in Council ratifying this scheme as aforesaid become and be constituted a separate district for spiritual purposes and that the same shall be named 'The District of Saint Matthew, Northowram.'

"And we further recommend and propose that the whole right of patronage of the said district so recommended to be constituted and when such district shall have become a new parish as aforesaid then of the said new parish and the nomination of the Minister or Incumbent thereof with the exception of one nomination, namely the second, shall without any assurance in the law other than this scheme and any duly gazetted Order of Your Majesty in Council ratifying the same and upon and from the day of the date of the publication of such Order in the London Gazette as aforesaid be assigned to and be absolutely vested in and shall and may be exercised by the said George Rodney, Bishop of Wakefield, and his successors Bishops of Wakefield, for ever, and that the said second nomination of the said Minister or Incumbent shall be assigned to and be absolutely vested in and shall and may be exercised by the said George Watkinson, his heirs and assigns.

"And we further recommend and propose that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid or any of them in accordance with the provisions of the said Acts or any of them or any other Act of Parliament.

"The SCHEDULE to which the foregoing Scheme has reference.

"The District of Saint Matthew, Northowram, comprising:—

"I. All that portion of the parochial chapelry of Coley, in the county of York and in the diocese of Wakefield, which is bounded upon the northwest by the new parish of Queenshead, upon the south-west partly by the new parish of Saint Thomas, Charlestown, and partly by the new parish of Saint Anne in the Grove, Halifax, upon part of the south-east by the new parish (some-time district chapelry) of Lightcliffe, all in the said county and diocese, and upon the remaining sides, that is to say, upon the remaining part of the south-east and upon the north-east, by an imaginary line commencing upon the boundary which divides the said new parish of Lightcliffe from the said parochial chapelry of Coley at the junction of Stony-lane with Wood-lane and extending thence northward along the middle of Wood-lane for a distance of twenty-five chains or thereabouts to the centre of the bridge or culvert which carries Wood-lane across the stream called Jum Hole Beck upon the boundary of the urban district of Hipperholme, and extending thence first north-eastward and then in various directions along the western boundaries of the urban districts of Hipperholme and Shelf (thereby following in part the middle of Jum Hole Beck and the middle of Lumb Brook, in part the middle of the road called Burkley Hill and in part the middle of the road leading from Stone Chair to Queensbury) for a distance of two miles and a half or thereabouts to the junction of the road leading from Stone Chair to Queensbury with Corporal-lane upon the boundary which divides the said parochial chapelry of Coley from the said new parish of Queenshead.

"II. And also all that portion of the said new parish of Lightcliffe which is bounded upon part of the north and upon the west by the said parochial chapelry of Coley, and upon the remaining sides, that is to say, upon the south, upon the east and upon the remaining part of the north, by an imaginary line commencing upon the boundary which divides the said parochial chapelry of Coley from the said new parish of Lightcliffe at the junction of Stony-lane with the road leading from Stump Cross to Hipperholme and extending thence first south-eastward and then eastward, along the middle of the last-mentioned road for a distance of twelve chains or thereabouts to a point opposite to the southern end of the fence forming the eastern boundary of the close known as Park Field and numbered one upon the map or plan annexed to this scheme and extending thence northward to and along the said fence for a distance of four chains or thereabouts to its northern end on the southern side of Wood-lane, and extending thence first northward to and then north-westward along the middle of Wood-lane for a distance of seven chains or thereabouts to the boundary which divides the said new parish of Lightcliffe from the said parochial chapelry of Coley."

And whereas drafts of the said scheme have, in accordance with the provisions of the secondly hereinbefore mentioned Act, been transmitted to the Patron and to the Incumbents of the cures out of which it is intended that the district recommended in such scheme to be constituted shall be taken, and such Patron and Incumbents have respectively signified their assent to such scheme.

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by His Majesty in Council: now, therefore, His Majesty, by and with the advice of His said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Acts; and
