

Privy Council, issue forth this Our Royal Proclamation, strictly charging and commanding all the Peers of Scotland to assemble and meet at Holyrood House, in Edinburgh, on Friday, the twenty-eighth day of January instant, between the hours of twelve and two in the afternoon, to nominate and choose the Sixteen Peers to sit and vote in the House of Peers in the said ensuing Parliament by open Election and Plurality of Voices of the Peers that shall be then present, and of the Proxies of such as shall be absent (such Proxies being Peers, and producing a Mandate in Writing duly signed before Witnesses, and both the Constituent and Proxy being qualified according to law); and the Lord Clerk Register, or the two Principal Clerks of the Session appointed by him to officiate in his name, are hereby respectively required to attend such Meeting, and to administer the Oaths required by Law to be taken there by the said Peers, and to take their Votes, and immediately after such Election made and duly examined to certify the Names of the Sixteen Peers so elected, and to sign and attest the same in the presence of the said Peers the Electors, and return such Certificate into Our High Court of Chancery of Great Britain: And We do, by this Our Royal Proclamation, strictly command and require the Provost of Edinburgh, and all other the Magistrates of the said city, to take especial care to preserve the peace thereof during the time of the said Election, and to prevent all manner of riots, tumults, disorders, and violence whatsoever; And We strictly charge and command that this Our Royal Proclamation be duly published at the Market Cross at Edinburgh, and in all the county towns of Scotland, ten days at least before the time hereby appointed for the meeting of the said Peers to proceed to such Election.

Witness Ourselves at Buckingham Palace this Tenth day of January, one thousand nine hundred and ten, and in the Ninth year of Our Reign.

GOD save the KING.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 10th day of January, 1910.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

His Majesty having been this day pleased, by His Royal Proclamation, to dissolve the present

Parliament, and to declare the Calling of another, is hereby further pleased, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, to order that the Right Honourable the Lord High Chancellor of that part of the United Kingdom called Great Britain, and the Right Honourable the Lord Chancellor of Ireland, do, respectively, and upon notice of this His Majesty's Order, forthwith cause Writs to be issued in due form and according to Law for the Calling of a new Parliament, to meet at the city of Westminster on Tuesday, the fifteenth day of February next: which Writs are to be returnable in due course of Law.
