

of the Acts therein mentioned, that is to say, the Act of the third and fourth years of Her said late Majesty, chapter one hundred and thirteen, the Act of the fourth and fifth years of Her said late Majesty, chapter thirty-nine, and the Act of the thirty-first and thirty-second years of Her said late Majesty, chapter one hundred and fourteen, have prepared and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council the following scheme for effecting a transfer of the ownership of the advowson or perpetual right of patronage of and presentation to the church and cure (hereinafter called 'the said benefice') of North Hinksey, in the county of Berks and in the diocese of Oxford.

"Whereas one undivided moiety of the advowson or perpetual right of patronage of and presentation to the said benefice of North Hinksey is vested for an estate in fee simple in possession free from incumbrances in certain trustees upon trust in the first place for the Right Honourable Lewis Harcourt, of Nuneham Park, in the county of Oxford, a Member of Your Majesty's Privy Council, during his life, and the said Lewis Harcourt is therefore the Patron or person entitled to present or nominate to the said benefice in case the same were now vacant and such turn of presentation fell to the owner of such moiety of the advowson, and the remaining moiety of the said advowson is vested for an estate in fee simple in possession free from incumbrances in the Honourable Osbert William Craven, of No. 110, Mount-street, Grosvenor-square, in the city of Westminster.

"And whereas the said Lewis Harcourt as to the one moiety and the said Osbert William Craven as to the other moiety are desirous that the whole advowson or perpetual right of patronage of and presentation to the said benefice of North Hinksey should be transferred to and be vested in the Right Reverend Francis, Bishop of Oxford, and his successors in the same Bishoprick.

"And whereas the said Francis, Bishop of Oxford, is willing to accept such transfer, and in token of such his willingness and also in token that the same transfer has that consent of the Bishop of the diocese, which by the Acts in the hereinbefore mentioned Act recited or by some or one of them is made necessary he, the said Francis, Bishop of Oxford, has executed this scheme as hereinafter mentioned.

"And whereas the transfer of the patronage of the said benefice of North Hinksey, which is hereinbefore mentioned and hereinafter recommended and proposed will render the same benefice more eligible for augmentation out of funds under our control, and this circumstance will in our opinion tend to make better provision for the cure of souls in the parish or district in or in respect of which the right of patronage or advowson so recommended and proposed to be transferred as aforesaid arises or exists, that is to say in the parish of North Hinksey.

"Now therefore with the consent as to the one moiety of the said advowson of the said Lewis Harcourt, being the person whose consent as Patron is required by the provisions of the hereinbefore mentioned Acts and of the Act of the first and second years of Her said late Majesty, chapter one hundred and six, and with the consent as to the other moiety of the said advowson of the said Osbert William Craven (in testimony of which consents the said Lewis Harcourt and the said Osbert William Craven have respectively signed and sealed this scheme), and with the consent of the said Francis,

Bishop of Oxford (in testimony whereof he has signed this scheme and sealed the same with his episcopal seal), we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England humbly recommend and propose that, upon and from the day of the date of the publication in the London Gazette of any Order of Your Majesty in Council ratifying this scheme and without any conveyance or assurance in the law other than such duly gazetted Order the whole advowson or perpetual right of patronage of and presentation to the said benefice of North Hinksey shall be transferred to the said Francis, Bishop of Oxford, and his successors in the same Bishoprick, and shall thereupon and thenceforth become and be absolutely vested in and shall and may from time to time be exercised by the said Francis, Bishop of Oxford, and by his successors in the same Bishoprick for ever.

"And we further recommend and propose that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any further or other measures relating to the matters aforesaid or any of them in accordance with the provisions of the said Acts or of any of them or of any other Act of Parliament."

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by His Majesty in Council:

Now, therefore, His Majesty, by and with the advice of His said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Acts; and His Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of Oxford.
