

be transferred to and be vested in the Bishop for the time being of the said diocese of Wakefield.

"And whereas the Right Reverend George Rodney, now Bishop of the said diocese of Wakefield, is willing to accept such transfer, and in token of such his willingness and also in token that the same transfer has that consent of the Bishop which by the Acts in the hereinbefore mentioned Act recited or by some or one of them is made necessary he, the said George Rodney, Bishop of the said diocese of Wakefield, has executed this scheme as herein-after mentioned.

"And whereas it appears to us that the transfer of the patronage of the said benefice of Helme, which is hereinbefore mentioned and hereinafter recommended and proposed, will tend to make better provision for the cure of souls in the parish or district in or in respect of which the right of patronage or advowson so recommended and proposed to be transferred as aforesaid arises or exists, that is to say, in the parish of Helme.

"Now therefore, with the consent of the said Charles Brooke Whitaker Brook and of the said Charles Dixon Hoste, Vicar or Incumbent of the said parish of Almondbury, acting as such Vicar or Incumbent (in testimony whereof they have severally signed and sealed this scheme), and with the consent of the said George Rodney, Bishop of the said diocese of Wakefield (in testimony whereof he has signed this scheme and sealed the same with his episcopal seal), we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, humbly recommend and propose that upon and from the day of the date of the publication in the London Gazette of any Order of Your Majesty in Council ratifying this scheme and without any conveyance or assurance in the law other than such duly gazetted Order the whole advowson or perpetual right of patronage of and presentation to the said benefice of Helme, now vested as aforesaid in the said Charles Brooke Whitaker Brook and the said Charles Dixon Hoste, as such Vicar and Incumbent of the said vicarage of Almondbury as aforesaid, shall be transferred from them the said Charles Brooke Whitaker Brook and the said Charles Dixon Hoste to the said George Rodney, Bishop of the said diocese of Wakefield, and his successors, Bishops of the same diocese, and shall thereupon and thenceforth become and be absolutely vested in and shall and may from time to time be exercised by the said George Rodney, Bishop of the said diocese of Wakefield, and by his successors, Bishops of the same diocese, for ever.

"And we further recommend and propose that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any further or other measures relating to the matters aforesaid or any of them in accordance with the provisions of the said Acts or of any of them or of any other Act of Parliament."

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by His Majesty in Council:

Now, therefore, His Majesty, by and with the advice of His said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Acts: and His Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of Wakefield.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 10th day of January, 1910.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the thirty-third and thirty-fourth years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, chapter thirty-nine, and of the Acts therein mentioned, that is to say, the Act of the third and fourth years of Her said late Majesty, chapter one hundred and thirteen, the Act of the fourth and fifth years of Her said late Majesty, chapter thirty-nine, and the Act of the thirty-first and thirty-second years of Her said late Majesty, chapter one hundred and fourteen, duly prepared and laid before His Majesty in Council a scheme bearing date the fourth day of November, in the year one thousand nine hundred and nine, in the words following, that is to say:—

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the thirty-third and thirty-fourth years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, chapter thirty-nine, and of the Acts therein mentioned, that is to say, the Act of the third and fourth years of Her said late Majesty, chapter one hundred and thirteen, the Act of the fourth and fifth years of Her said late Majesty, chapter thirty-nine, and the Act of the thirty-first and thirty-second years of Her said late Majesty, chapter one hundred and fourteen, have prepared and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council the following scheme for effecting a transfer of the ownership of the advowson or perpetual right of patronage of and presentation to the church and cure (hereinafter called 'the said benefice') of Cumberworth, in the county of York and in the diocese of Wakefield.

"Whereas the advowson or perpetual right of patronage of and presentation to the said benefice of Cumberworth is vested for an estate in fee simple in possession free from incumbrances in the Right Honourable Wentworth Canning Blackett, Baron Allendale (hereinafter called 'the said Lord Allendale'), of Bywell Hall, Stocksfield-on-Tyne, in the county of Northumberland.

"And whereas the said Lord Allendale is desirous that the whole advowson or perpetual right of patronage of and presentation to the said benefice of Cumberworth, now vested in him as aforesaid should be transferred to and be vested in the Bishop for the time being of the said diocese of Wakefield.

"And whereas the Right Reverend George Rodney, now Bishop of Wakefield, is willing to accept such transfer, and in token of such his willingness, and also in token that the same transfer has that consent of the Bishop of the diocese which by the Acts in the hereinbefore mentioned Act recited or by some or one of them is made necessary, he the said George Rodney, Bishop of Wakefield, has executed this scheme as herein-after mentioned.

"And whereas the transfer of the patronage of the said benefice of Cumberworth, which is hereinbefore mentioned and hereinafter recommended and proposed, will render the same benefice more eligible for augmentation out of funds under our control, and this circumstance will in our opinion tend to make better provision for the cure of souls in the parish or district in or in respect of which the right of patronage or advowson so recommended and proposed to be transferred as aforesaid arises or exists, that is to say, in the parochial chapelry of Cumberworth.
