ORDER OF THE BOARD OF AGRICULTURE AND FISHERIES.

(DATED 13TH JANUARY 1910.)

FIFESHIRE (STRANGLES AND INFLUENZA)
ORDER OF 1910.

The Board of Agriculture and Fisheries, by virtue and in exercise of the powers vested in them under the Diseases of Animals Acts, 1894 to 1909, and of every other power enabling them in this behalf, do order, and it is hereby ordered, as follows:

Power to make Regulations.

1.—(1.) The Local Authority of a District mentioned in the Schedule hereto may by Regulation applicable to their District declare that the owner or person in charge of a horse affected with strangles or influenza, or suspected of being so affected, shall not

(i.) expose the horse in a market, fair, sale-yard, or other public or private place where horses are commonly exposed for sale;

(ii.) place the horse in a lair or other place adjacent to or connected with a market, fair, or sale-yard, or where horses are commonly placed before exposure for sale;

(iii.) place or keep the horse on common or unenclosed land, or in a field or place insufficiently fenced, or in a field adjoining other land on which horses are kept or adjoining a highway unless the field is so fenced or situate that animals therein cannot in any manner come in contact with any horse kept on the adjoining land or passing along the highway or grazing on the sides thereof;

(iv.) graze the horse on pasture being on the sides of a highway;

(v.) allow the horse to stray on a highway or thoroughfare or on the sides thereof;

(vi.) place the horse, or cause it to be placed in any stable or building in the occupation of some person other than the owner or person in charge of the horse, unless such occupier has notice of the horse being affected or suspected of being affected;

(vii.) take the horse or cause it to be taken into any public shoeing-forge or smithy; or

(viii.) permit the horse to drink from any public watering trough.

(2.) The Regulations may be restricted to strangles or to influenza.

(3.) The Local Authority shall forthwith send to the Board of Agriculture and Fisheries two copies of every Regulation made by them under this Order.

Extension of certain Sections of Diseases of Animals Act, 1894.

2. Horses shall be animals, and strangles and influenza shall be diseases for the purposes of this Order and of the following sections of the Diseases of Animals Act, 1894 (namely):

Section forty-three (Police);

Section forty-four (General Administrative Provisions); and also for the purposes of all other sections of the said Act containing provisions relative to or consequent on the provisions of those sections and this Order, including such sections as relate to offences or procedure.

Exemption of Army Veterinary Service and Veterinary Colleges.

3. Nothing in this Order applies to any horse kept in stables of military barracks or camps under the care and supervision of the Army Veterinary Service, or in stables of any Veterinary College affiliated to the Royal College of Veterinary Surgeons.

Short Title.

4. This Order may be cited as the FIFESHIRE (STRANGLES AND INFLUENZA) ORDER OF 1910.

In witness whereof the Board of Agriculture and Fisheries have hereunto set their Official Seal this thirteenth day of January, nineteen hundred and ten.

T. H. Elliott,

Secretary.
