"Whereas by the authority of an Order of Her said late Majesty in Council bearing date the twenty-sixth day of April, in the year one thousand eight hundred and forty-five, and published in the London Gazette on the sixth day of the following month, part of the parish of Saint Michael, in the city and diocese of Lichfield, was assigned as a chapelry district to the consecrated church of Saint John, situate at Wall, in the said parish of Saint Michael, and the said chapelry district was named 'the Chapelry District of Wall.'

"And whereas it has been represented to us, and it appears to us to be expedient that the boundaries of the said new parish of Wall, and the said new parish of Ogley Hay, shall be altered in the manner which is hereinafter mentioned.

"Now, therefore, with the consent of the Honourable and Right Reverend Augustus, Bishop of Lichfield (in testimony whereof he has signed and sealed this scheme or representation) we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, humbly represent, recommend, and propose that from and after the day of the date of the publication in the London Gazette of an Order of Your Majesty in Council ratifying this scheme or representation and without any assurance in the law other than such duly gazetted Order the boundaries of the said new parish of Wall, and the said new parish of Ogley Hay, shall be altered so that all those portions of the said new parish of Ogley Hay, of the parish of Shenstone, in the said county of Stafford and in the said diocese of Lichfield, and of the said parish of Saint Michael, Lichfield, which are described in the schedule hereunder written and are delineated and set forth upon the map or plan hereunto annexed and are thereon coloured green, pink, and purple respectively, shall be dissevered from such new parish and parishes respectively, and shall be annexed to and shall in future form part of the said new parish of Wall.
