PURSUANT to an Order of the Chancery Division of the High Court of Justice, dated the 26th day of April, 1909, made "In the Matter of the Estate of RICHARD JAMES FISHER, deceased, Washbourne against Stanford and others," 1908, F. 837, the following inquiries are directed, namely:—

1. An inquiry whether the above named Richard James Fisher was ever married, and if so when and to whom.

2. An inquiry whether the said Richard James Fisher left a widow him surviving, and if so whether she is alive or has since died, and if she is dead who is her personal representative.

3. An inquiry whether the said Richard James Fisher had any children, and if so what were their names and whether they survived the said Richard James Fisher or predeceased him.

4. An inquiry whether any children of the said Richard James Fisher who predeceased him left issue who survived the said Richard James Fisher.

5. An inquiry whether the children of the said Richard James Fisher who survived him and the issue who survived the said Richard James Fisher of any children of the said Richard James Fisher who predeceased him are respectively still alive, and if not who are their respective legal personal representatives.

6. An inquiry who were the persons entitled by virtue of the Statute of Distribution or otherwise to the estate of the said Richard James Fisher living at his death, and whether any of them have since died and if so who are their respective legal personal representatives.

Now the person claiming to be the Widow of the said Richard James Fisher, if alive, or if dead her legal personal representatives, and the persons claiming to be the next-of-kin of the said Richard James Fisher, are, by their Solicitors, on or before the 7th day of October, 1910, to come in and prove their claims at the chambers of Mr. Justice Eve, at the Royal Courts of Justice, Strand, London, England, or in default thereof they will be peremptorily excluded from the benefit of the said Order. Friday, the 14th day of October, 1910, at 12.30 o'clock, at the said chambers and Room 689, is appointed for the hearing and adjudicating upon the claims.

NOTE.—The said Richard James Fisher, it is believed, formerly practised as a Solicitor at Hobart, Tasmania, between the years 1860 and 1870, and he died at Newport, Salop, on the 4th April, 1873.

Dated 9th day of March, 1910.
