

Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty are to give the necessary directions herein accordingly.

Almeric FitzRoy.

At the Court at Saint James's, the 22nd day of April, 1910.

PRESENT,

HIS ROYAL HIGHNESS THE PRINCE OF WALES.

Lord President.
Lord Steward.
Sir Fleetwood Edwards.
Colonel Seely.

WHEREAS His Majesty was pleased, by His Commission dated the fifth day of March, one thousand nine hundred and ten, to nominate and appoint His Royal Highness The Prince of Wales, in His Majesty's absence from His Realm in Foreign Parts, to hold on His Majesty's behalf, His Privy Council, and to signify thereat His approval of any matter or thing whereunto His Royal Highness should be authorized by writing under His Majesty's Sign Manual, and to do further on His Majesty's behalf any matter or thing for the purposes of the said Commission whereunto His Royal Highness should be authorized in manner aforesaid:

And whereas there was this day read at a Council held by His Royal Highness under the authority of the said Commission a Memorial from the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty, dated the second day of April, one thousand nine hundred and ten, in the words following, viz. :—

"Whereas by section three of the Naval and Marine Pay and Pensions Act, 1865, it is enacted, inter alia; that all pay, pensions, and other allowances in the nature thereof, payable in respect of services in Your Majesty's Naval or Marine Force to a person being or having been an Officer, seaman, or marine therein, shall be paid in such manner and subject to such restrictions, conditions, and provisions, as are from time to time directed by Order in Council:

"And whereas by Order in Council of Her late Majesty bearing date the fifth day of February, one thousand eight hundred and seventy-two, Sub-Lieutenants of three years' seniority who are placed upon the Retired List on account of physical unfitness may be granted retired pay at the rate of three shillings and sixpence per diem, an additional sixpence being given for each complete year beyond three served as a Sub-Lieutenant until the maximum is reached, i.e. six shillings per diem:

"And whereas we consider it desirable that Sub-Lieutenants of less than three years seniority who are placed upon the Retired List for physical unfitness should be eligible for the grant of retired pay:

"We beg leave humbly to recommend that Your Majesty may be graciously pleased by Your Order in Council to authorize us to grant retired pay at the rate of two shillings and sixpence per diem to Sub-Lieutenants of less than three years' seniority who are placed on the Retired List on account of permanent sickness or disability contracted in the Service.

"We would further recommend that this provision should take effect as from the second day of June, one thousand nine hundred and nine:

"The Lords Commissioners of Your Majesty's Treasury have signified their concurrence in these proposals."

Now therefore, His Royal Highness the Prince of Wales, being authorized thereto by writing under His Majesty's Sign Manual, hath taken the said Memorial into consideration, and doth hereby, by and with the advice of His Majesty's Privy Council, signify His Majesty's approval of what is therein proposed, and doth, on behalf of His Majesty, order, as it is hereby ordered, that the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty do give the necessary directions herein accordingly.

Almeric FitzRoy.

At the Court at Saint James's, the 22nd day of April, 1910.

PRESENT,

HIS ROYAL HIGHNESS THE PRINCE OF WALES.

Lord President.
Lord Steward.
Sir Fleetwood Edwards.
Colonel Seely.

WHEREAS His Majesty was pleased, by His Commission dated the fifth day of March, one thousand nine hundred and ten, to nominate and appoint His Royal Highness The Prince of Wales, in His Majesty's absence from His Realm in Foreign Parts, to hold on His Majesty's behalf, His Privy Council, and to signify thereat His approval of any matter or thing whereunto His Royal Highness should be authorized by writing under His Majesty's Sign Manual, and to do further on His Majesty's behalf any matter or thing for the purposes of the said Commission whereunto His Royal Highness should be authorized in manner aforesaid:

And whereas by section 1 of the Burial Act, 1855, it is provided that it shall be lawful for His Majesty, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, from time to time to postpone the time appointed by any Order in Council for the discontinuance of burials, or otherwise to vary any Order in Council made under any of the Acts recited in the said Act, or under the said Act (whether the time thereby appointed for the discontinuance of burials thereunder, or other operation of such Order, shall or shall not have arrived), as to His Majesty, with such advice as aforesaid, may seem fit:

And whereas an Order in Council was made on the twenty-first day of August, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-six, directing the discontinuance of burials in, among other places, the Vicarage Croft, Wakefield, in the county of York, from and after the first day of May, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-seven.

And whereas Orders in Council were made on the twentieth day of March, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-seven, the fourth day of November, one thousand eight hundred and fifty seven, the second day of September, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-eight, and the twelfth day of April, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-nine, postponing the time for the discontinuance of burials in the said Vicarage Croft, Wakefield:

And whereas it is expedient that the said Orders in Council so far as they affect the said
