FRIDAY, MAY 13, 1910.

College of Arms, 10th May, 1910.

The Earl Marshal's Order for a General Mourning for His late Most Gracious Majesty King Edward the Seventh:—

In pursuance of an Order of His Majesty in Council, dated the 10th day of May, 1910, these are to give public notice that it is expected that all persons upon the present occasion of the death of His late Majesty of Blessed and Glorious Memory do put themselves into decent Mourning, to begin on Thursday, the 12th day of this instant May.

NORFOLK, Earl Marshal.

College of Arms, May 9, 1910.

IN obedience to His Majesty's Order in Council of the 7th instant that the Kings, Heralds, and Pursuivants of Arms do attend at the Court at St. James's to proceed with the usual Ceremonies to proclaim His Majesty King George V. the Officers of Arms this day made Proclamation accordingly.

At nine o'clock in the forenoon the Officers of Arms, habited in their tabards, assembled at St. James's Palace, and, attended by the Serjeants-at-Arms, proceeded to the balcony in Friary Court, where, after the trumpets had sounded a fanfare, the Proclamation was read by Sir Alfred Scott-Gatty, Garter Principal King of Arms, in the presence of the Earl Marshal and several of His Majesty's Ministers.

A Procession was then formed in the following order:—
