

And whereas notice of the said application and of the time and manner in which objections should be made to any such regulation appeared in the London Gazette of the 1st day of March, 1910, and in the "Slough, Eton, and Windsor Observer" of the 12th day of March, 1910:

And whereas certain objections to the making of any regulation in pursuance of the said provisions have been received by the Local Government Board, and it is expedient that further inquiry should be made in the matter of the said application:

Notice is hereby given that R. C. Maxwell, Esquire, Barrister-at-Law, one of the Inspectors of the Local Government Board, will attend at the Council Room, High-street, Burnham, on the twenty-third day of May, 1910, at two o'clock in the afternoon, to hold a Local Inquiry into the subject-matter of the said application.

And notice is hereby further given that any person interested may attend at such inquiry, and be heard with reference to the said application.

As witness my hand this eleventh day of May, 1910, at the Office of the Local Government Board, Whitehall, London.

J. S. Davy, Assistant-Secretary.

MOTOR CAR ACT, 1903.

County of West Sussex.

Whereas by sub-section 1 of section 9 of the Motor Car Act, 1903, it is enacted that within any limits or place referred to in regulations made by the Local Government Board with a view to the safety of the public, on the application of the local authority of the area in which the limits or place are situate, a person shall not drive a motor car at a speed exceeding ten miles per hour;

And whereas the County Council of West Sussex have made application to the Local Government Board for a regulation to be made in pursuance of the said sub-section putting the above mentioned provisions of that sub-section in force within the limits comprising so much of the road in the village of Rustington as extends from a point situate 100 yards to the south of the Lamb Inn to its junction with Ash-lane:

And whereas notice of the said application and of the time and manner in which objections should be made to any such regulation appeared in the London Gazette of the 22nd day of March, 1910, and in the "West Sussex Gazette" of the 24th day of March, 1910:

And whereas certain objections to the making of any regulation in pursuance of the said provisions have been received by the Local Government Board, and it is expedient that further inquiry should be made in the matter of the said application:

Notice is hereby given that R. C. Maxwell, Esquire, Barrister-at-Law, one of the Inspectors of the Local Government Board, will attend at the Lamb Inn, Rustington, on Wednesday, the twenty-fifth day of May, 1910, at half-past two o'clock in the afternoon, to hold a Local Inquiry into the subject-matter of the said application.

And notice is hereby further given that any person interested may attend at such inquiry, and be heard with reference to the said application.

As witness my hand this eleventh day of May, 1910, at the Office of the Local Government Board, Whitehall, London.

ORDER OF THE REGISTRAR-GENERAL IN ENGLAND.

(Dated 12th May, 1910.)

Whereas by the 21st section of the Births and Deaths Registration Act, 1874, it is enacted that the Registrar-General, with the sanction of the Local Government Board, may from time to time alter Registration Sub-districts:—

1. And whereas it is expedient that Moreton Say Sub-District of Market Drayton Registration District should be united with Market Drayton Sub-District of the same Registration District and that the enlarged Sub-District should be called and known as Market Drayton Sub-District;

2. Now, therefore, I, Bernard Mallet, Registrar-General of Births, Deaths, and Marriages in England, in exercise of the powers given me by the above mentioned Act, and with the sanction of the Local Government Board, do hereby order and declare that the foregoing alteration shall take effect accordingly.

3. This Order shall come into operation on 1st day of June, nineteen hundred and ten.

Witness my hand this 12th day of May, nineteen hundred and ten.

Bernard Mallet, Registrar-General.

General Register Office,
Somerset House, London.

PATENTS AND DESIGNS ACT, 1907.

Surrender of Letters Patent under Section 26 (3).

Notice is hereby given, that Herbert Sefton-Jones has offered to surrender the Letters Patent No. 8557 of 1908, granted to him for an invention (communicated by La Société Anonyme Petitcollin of Paris), for "Improvements in and relating to the manufacture of printing blocks and matrices." Any person who desires to be heard with reference to such surrender should notify his desire to me at the Patent Office, 25, Southampton-buildings, London, W.C., on or before the 13th day of June, 1910.

W. Temple Franks,
Comptroller-General.
