Whitehall, May 20, 1910.

His Majesty The King has been pleased to award the Edward Medal of the First Class to Harry Bennetts.

On the 31st December, 1909, an explosion occurred in the Randfontein South Gold Mine at Krugersdorp, through the firing of a packet of gelatine, which gave rise to a suffusion of deadly gas. Four miners who were at work were killed by asphyxia due to the gas. Bennetts, with great courage and at imminent risk of his life, descended two winzes alone to the rescue of natives who had been overcome by the poisonous fumes of the gelatine. One of the winzes was one hundred and twenty feet deep, the other seventy-five feet.

PUBLIC CARRIAGES.

I, Edward Richard Henry, the Commissioner of Police of the Metropolis, by virtue of section 4 of the London Hackney Carriages Act, 1850

(13 and 14 Vic., cap. 7), do make the following Regulations to be observed by drivers at all standings within the Metropolitan Police Area:—

(1.) The drivers of the first two motor cabs must be with their cabs and ready to be hired at once by any person.

(2.) All cabs on the standing must move up as vacancies occur.

(3.) No motor cab engaged for some future time shall remain on the standing unless willing to accept any intermediate hiring that may be offered.

(4.) No disabled motor cab shall remain on the standing unless such disablement is strictly temporary, and can be, and is, remedied at once. If the disablement is not of such a nature, a notice (in a form to be approved by the Commissioner) must be at once placed on the cab to the effect that it cannot be used, and will be removed for repair.

The following Regulations are also to be observed by drivers at standings provided with "shelters":—

(5.) A proportion of drivers, not exceeding one-fourth of those actually on the standing, or, if the standing is full, of the total authorised number, may, subject to the reservations hereinafter mentioned, be allowed a time for meals not exceeding thirty minutes for each driver.

(6.) Every driver who wishes to avail himself of the "meal time" must obtain from the constable on duty at the standing and place upon his cab a stamped official notice or card showing his cab is not for hire. The period allowed for meals will take effect from the time when the driver receives the official notice or card.

(7.) The drivers must then place their cabs on that portion of the standing set aside for the purpose, the cabs taking position in proper consecutive order.

(8.) As a rule, the number of cabs on the "ordinary" portion of the standing should not fall below the number on the "reserved" portion, and a sufficient number of cabs from the "reserved" portion may be required to move up to the "ordinary" portion though the full period of thirty minutes allowed to the drivers has not expired.

In no case, however, may the number available to the public on the "ordinary" portion be less than one-fourth of the total number actually on the combined portions of the standings, or in any event less than two cabs as provided in Regulation No. 1. The vacancies on the "ordinary" portion are to be filled by the leading cabs on the "reserved" portion unless the driver finds a substitute to move up for him.

(9.) A driver desiring to place his cab on a standing is entitled to a vacant place on the "ordinary" portion of it, and to precedence for hire over the drivers of the cabs on the "reserved" portion.

(10.) Each driver who obtains the stamped official notice or card from the constable, must himself return it to the constable, and may on no account transfer or lend it to another person.

(11.) For the purpose of the Regulations a "shelter" is deemed to be a recognised temporary building or other structure at or near a standing to which cab drivers only have the right of access and at which food is provided for the drivers who resort thereto.
