MOTOR CAR ACT, 1903.

County of Essex.

Whereas by sub-section 1 of section 9 of the Motor Car Act, 1903, it is enacted that within any limits or place referred to in regulations made by the Local Government Board with a view to the safety of the public, on the application of the local authority of the area in which the limits or place are situate, a person shall not drive a motor car at a speed exceeding ten miles per hour:

Notice is hereby given that the County Council of Essex have made application to the Local Government Board for a regulation to be made in pursuance of the said sub-section, putting the above-mentioned provisions of that sub-section in force within the limits comprising the following roads or parts of roads within the urban district of Waltham Holy Cross, that is to say:—

So much of the road leading to Cheshunt as extends from its junction with Sewardstone-road, along Sun-street, Market-square, Church-street, and High Bridge-street to its junction with Lea-road;

So much of the Nazeing and Sewardstone-road as extends from a point situate 75 yards north of "The New Inn" to a point situate 1 furlong and 73 yards south of the said Inn; and

So much of Farm Hill-road as extends for a distance of 75 yards from its junction with Sewardstone-road.

Notice is hereby further given that objections to the making of any such regulation may be sent in writing to the Local Government Board, at their offices at Whitehall, London, on or before the fourteenth day of June, 1910.

A copy of any such objection should be sent at the same time by the objector to the County Council of Essex, Shire Hall, Chelmsford.

Dated this twenty-fourth day of May, 1910.

Walter T. Jarred, Assistant-Secretary,
Local Government Board.
