

Ecclesiastical Commissioners, humbly represent that it would, in our opinion, be expedient that all that part of the said new parish of Poulton, which is described in the schedule hereunder written, all which part, together with the boundaries thereof, is delineated and set forth on the map or plan hereunto annexed, should be assigned as a district chapelry to the said church of Saint Barnabas, Morecambe, situate as aforesaid, and that the same should be named 'The District Chapelry of Saint Barnabas, Morecambe.'

"And with the like consent of the said Edmund Arbutnott, Bishop of Manchester (testified as aforesaid), we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, further represent, that it appears to us to be expedient that banns of matrimony should be published, and that marriages, baptisms, churchings, and burials should be solemnized or performed at the said church of Saint Barnabas, Morecambe, situate as aforesaid, and that the fees to be received in respect of the publication of such banns and of the solemnization or performance of the said offices should be paid and belong to the Minister of the same church for the time being: Provided always, that nothing herein contained shall be construed as expressing any intention on the part of us, the said Commissioners, to concur in or approve the taking of any fee for the performance of the said office of baptism or for the registration thereof.

"We, therefore, humbly pray that Your Majesty will be graciously pleased to take the premises into Your Royal consideration and to make such Order with respect thereto as to Your Majesty, in Your Royal wisdom, shall seem meet.

"The SCHEDULE to which the foregoing Representation has reference.

"The District Chapelry of Saint Barnabas, Morecambe, being:—

"All that part of the new parish (sometime district chapelry) of Poulton, in the county of Lancaster and in the diocese of Manchester, which is bounded upon the north-west by the sea, upon the south-west by the parish of Heysham, in the said county and diocese, and upon the remaining sides, that is to say, upon the south-east, upon the east, and upon the north-east, by an imaginary line commencing at the point where the boundary which divides the said parish of Heysham from the said new parish of Poulton crosses the middle of the Heysham Branch Line of the Midland Railway, and extending thence north-eastward along the middle of the said line of railway for a distance of fourteen chains and a quarter or thereabouts to a point opposite to the fence forming the boundary between the closes numbered 152 and 153 upon the Ordnance Map of the civil parish of Poulton, Bare and Torrisholme published in the year one thousand eight hundred and ninety-one upon the scale of twenty-five inches to a mile and also upon the map or plan which is annexed to this representation, and extending thence first northward to and along the said fence and then north-westward along the fence forming the boundary between the said close numbered 153 and the close numbered 151 upon the said maps for a distance in all of thirteen chains and three-quarters or thereabouts to the point where the last mentioned fence meets the eastern side of Acre Moss-lane, and extending thence first westward to and then northward along the middle of Acre Moss-lane for a distance of twenty-eight chains or thereabouts to its junction with Moss-lane, and continuing thence northward in precisely the same direction and in a straight line for a distance of seven chains or thereabouts to a point in the middle of the North Western Branch Line of the Midland Railway, and extending thence first westward and then north-westward along the middle of the last mentioned line of railway for a distance of a quarter of a mile or thereabouts to the point where it crosses the middle of Marine-road, and extending thence in a straight line due north to the sea."

And whereas the said representation has been approved by His Majesty in Council:

Now, therefore, His Majesty, by and with the advice of His said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said representation, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Acts; and His Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of Manchester.

At the Court at Saint James's, the 11th day of June, 1910.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the fifty-ninth year of His late Majesty King George the Third, chapter one hundred and thirty-four; of the Act of the second and third years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, chapter forty-nine; of the Act of the fourteenth and fifteenth years of Her said late Majesty, chapter ninety-seven; and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Her said late Majesty, chapter fifty-five, duly prepared and laid before His Majesty in Council a representation, bearing date the twelfth day of May, in the year one thousand nine hundred and ten, in the words and figures following, that is to say:—

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the fifty-ninth year of His late Majesty King George the Third, chapter one hundred and thirty-four; of the Act of the second and third years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, chapter forty-nine; of the Act of the fourteenth and fifteenth years of Her said late Majesty, chapter ninety-seven; and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Her said late Majesty, chapter fifty-five, have prepared, and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council, the following representation as to the assignment of a district chapelry to the consecrated church of Saint-Benedict, Bordesley, situate in the new parish (sometime district) of Saint Oswald, Bordesley, in the county of Warwick and in the diocese of Birmingham.

"Whereas it appears to us to be expedient that a district chapelry should be assigned to the said church of Saint Benedict, Bordesley, situate as aforesaid.

"Now therefore, with the consent of the Right Reverend Charles, Bishop of Birmingham (testified by his having signed and sealed this representation), we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, humbly represent that it would, in our opinion, be expedient that all that part of the said new parish of Saint Oswald, Bordesley,
