

"or right of patronage mentioned in the certificate of the said Commissioners other than advowsons or rights of patronage belonging to any such Ecclesiastical Corporation as aforesaid, and the opinion of counsel on such title; and that thereupon it shall be lawful for His Majesty in Council, in any Order for such licence made and issued under the provisions of the same Act, to order that such exchange as aforesaid shall take effect; and upon such Order being made and registered pursuant to the said Act, the said exchange shall be valid and effectual, without any other assurance in the law, and notwithstanding that the advowsons or rights of patronage, or any or either of them, exchanged by virtue of the said Order, were, or was previously thereto, vested in or belonged to any such Ecclesiastical Corporation as aforesaid; and the respective exchanges, their heirs, appointees, successors and assigns, shall thenceforth stand seized of the advowsons or rights of patronage so taken in exchange, in the same manner to all intents and purposes and subject to the same trusts, powers, limitations, charges and incumbrances (if any), as the advowsons or rights of patronage by them given in exchange were respectively held and were subject."

And whereas the Right Honourable and Most Reverend Randall Thomas, Lord Archbishop of Canterbury, pursuant to the provisions of the said Acts, hath duly prepared and laid before His Majesty in Council a certificate in writing, bearing date the twenty-first day of March, one thousand nine hundred and ten, in the words following, that is to say:—

"We the undersigned Randall Thomas, Archbishop of the Province of Canterbury, Primate of All England and Metropolitan, do hereby certify to Your Majesty in Council—

"That the Right Reverend John, Lord Bishop of Salisbury, as Bishop of the diocese within which are situate the vicarage of Toller Porcorum, otherwise Great Toller, and the vicarage of Toller Fratrum, otherwise Little Toller, with the chapelry of Wynford Eagle annexed, both in the county of Dorset, having represented unto us that the said benefices being contiguous to each other and of which the aggregate population does not exceed fifteen hundred persons might with advantage to the interests of religion be united into one benefice, we enquired into the circumstances of the case:

"That on such enquiry it appeared to us that such union might be usefully made and would not be of inconvenient extent and that Robert Williams, of Bridehead, in the said county of Dorset, Member of Parliament, being the Patron or person entitled to present to the said vicarage of Great Toller (if the same were now vacant) and the Right Honourable Philip George, sixth Baron Wynford, being the Patron or person entitled to present to the said vicarage of Little Toller with the chapelry of Wynford Eagle annexed (the same being now vacant), have consented to the proposed union and to the exchange of patronage hereinafter referred to:

"That six weeks and upwards before certifying such enquiry and consent to Your Majesty in Council, we caused a copy in writing of the aforesaid representation of the said Lord Bishop to be affixed to the principal outer door of the parish church of each of the said benefices with notice to any person or persons interested that he, she, or they might within such six weeks show cause in writing under his, her, or their hand or hands, to us the said Archbishop against such union and no such cause has been shown:

"The representation of the said Lord Bishop of Salisbury, our enquiry into the circumstances of the case, the statement of circumstances in reply thereto, the consents in writing of the said Robert Williams and the said Baron Wynford as Patrons of the said benefices of Great Toller and Little Toller, with the chapelry of Wynford Eagle respectively and the copies of the representation and notices before mentioned are herewith annexed:

"And we do hereby certify the enquiry and consents aforesaid to Your Majesty in Council to the intent that Your Majesty in Council may in case Your Majesty in Council shall think fit so to do make and issue an Order for uniting the said benefices into one benefice with cure of souls for ecclesiastical purposes, and further that in pursuance of a certificate by the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, dated the fifteenth day of July, one thousand nine hundred and nine, we recommend that the advowson or right of patronage of the said benefice of Little Toller with Wynford Eagle should be exchanged for the advowson or right of patronage of West Compton alias Compton Abbas West, in the said county of Dorset and diocese of Salisbury, and we therefore transmit herewith to Your Majesty in Council such certificate together with abstracts of the title to the said advowsons respectively, and Counsel's opinion thereon.

"Randall Cantuar."

And whereas the certificate of the Ecclesiastical Commissioners and the consents of the Patrons referred to in the Archbishop's said certificate are as follows:—

"To the Right Honourable and Most Reverend Randall Thomas, Lord Archbishop of Canterbury:

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, with the consent of the Right Honourable Philip George, Baron Wynford, Patron of the benefice of Little Toller, in the county of Dorset and in the diocese of Salisbury, and with the consent also of Colonel Robert Williams, a Member of the Commons House of Parliament and Patron of the benefice of West Compton (alias Compton Abbas West), in the same county and diocese, do hereby certify to your Grace, in pursuance of an Act of the fourth and fifth years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, chapter thirty-nine, that it has been made to appear to us that with a view to proceedings being taken under the provisions of the Pluralities Act, 1838, and the Acts amending the same for the union of the said benefice of Little Toller with the benefice of Great Toller in the same county and diocese, it would be expedient to make an exchange of the advowson or right of patronage of the said benefice of Little Toller for the advowson or right of patronage of the said benefice of West Compton."

"To the Right Honourable and Most Reverend Randall Thomas, Lord Archbishop of Canterbury:—

"We, Robert Williams, of Bridehead, in the county of Dorset, Member of Parliament, being the Patron or person entitled to present to the vicarage of Toller Porcorum otherwise Great Toller, if the same were now vacant, and to the rectory of Compton Abbas West, otherwise West Compton, the same being now vacant, and the Right Honourable Philip George, sixth Baron Wynford, being the Patron or person now entitled to present to the vicarage of Toller Fratrum, otherwise Little Toller, with the chapelry of Wynford Eagle annexed, the same being now vacant, do, by this writing
