

University of Glasgow, and I thank you for your expression of sympathy with Myself and My Family in the loss which we have sustained and for your expressions of loyalty to Queen Mary and Myself.

" I look back with pleasure on the visit which I made recently to your University of which I am proud to be a Member and you may rest assured that I shall follow My beloved Father, the late King, in maintaining a strong interest in the great task which falls upon the University of Glasgow and the other Universities of Scotland, a task which is truly national in its scope, and which is achieved in a manner to which witness is borne throughout the Dominions of the Crown. It is My earnest hope that, with the continued support and encouragement of the great City of Glasgow, your University may long flourish on its high seat, and pass on the torch of learning for the benefit of Scotland and the Empire."
