

Queen Victoria, chapter thirty-nine, and of the Acts therein mentioned, that is to say, the Act of the third and fourth years of Her said late Majesty, chapter one hundred and thirteen, the Act of the fourth and fifth years of Her said late Majesty, chapter thirty-nine, and the Act of the thirty-first and thirty-second years of Her said late Majesty, chapter one hundred and fourteen, have prepared and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council the following scheme for effecting a transfer of the ownership of the advowson or perpetual right of patronage of and presentation to the church and cure (hereinafter called 'the said benefice') of Hanley William with Hanley Child, in the county of Worcester and in the diocese of Hereford.

"Whereas the advowson or perpetual right of patronage of and presentation to the said benefice of Hanley William with Hanley Child is vested for an estate in fee simple in possession free from incumbrances in the Reverend Ernest Edward Lea, of the Rectory, Eastham, Tenbury, in the county of Worcester, Clerk in Holy Orders.

"And whereas the said Ernest Edward Lea is desirous that the whole advowson or perpetual right of patronage of and presentation to the said benefice of Hanley William with Hanley Child, now vested in him as aforesaid, should be transferred to and be vested in the Right Reverend John, now Bishop of Hereford, in right of his Sec.

"And whereas the said John, now Bishop of Hereford, is willing to accept such transfer, and in token of such his willingness, and also in token that the same transfer has that consent of the Bishop of the diocese which, by the Acts in the hereinbefore mentioned Act recited, or by some or one of them is made necessary, he, the said John, Bishop of Hereford, has executed this scheme as hereinafter mentioned.

"And whereas the transfer of the patronage of the said benefice of Hanley William with Hanley Child, which is hereinbefore mentioned and hereinafter recommended and proposed, will, in our opinion, tend to make better provision for the cure of souls in the parish or district in or in respect of which the right of patronage or advowson so recommended and proposed to be transferred as aforesaid arises or exists, that is to say, in the parish of Hanley William with Hanley Child.

"Now, therefore, with the consent of the said Ernest Edward Lea (in testimony whereof he has signed and sealed this scheme), and with the consent of the said John, Bishop of Hereford (in testimony whereof he has signed this scheme and sealed the same with his episcopal seal), we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, humbly recommend and propose that upon and from the day of the date of the publication in the London Gazette of any Order of Your Majesty in Council ratifying this scheme, and without any conveyance or assurance in the law other than such duly gazetted Order, the whole advowson or perpetual right of patronage of and presentation to the said benefice of Hanley William with Hanley Child now vested in him, the said Ernest Edward Lea as aforesaid, shall be transferred to the said John, Bishop of Hereford, and his successors in the same bishoprick, and shall thereupon and thenceforth become and be absolutely vested in and shall and may from time to time be exercised by the said John, Bishop of Hereford, and his successors in the same bishoprick for ever.

"And we further recommend and propose that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any further or other measures relating to the matters aforesaid, or any of them, in accordance with the provisions of the said Acts, or of any of them, or of any other Act of Parliament."

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by His Majesty in Council:

Now, therefore, His Majesty, by and with the advice of His said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Acts. And His Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of Hereford.

At the Court at Saint James's, the 19th day of July, 1910.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Order made by the late King's Most Excellent Majesty in Council, on the nineteenth March, one thousand nine hundred and eight, His Majesty was pleased to order that, where any property belonging to or held for the benefit of a unit of Volunteers or Yeomanry mentioned in the first column of the schedule to that Order was vested in or held by any trustees other than the commanding officer of such unit, those trustees should, until otherwise directed by Order in Council under section twenty-nine of the Territorial and Reserve Forces Act, 1907, be appointed in regard to the property so vested in or held by them to be special trustees, to the exclusion of the Associations, and should continue to hold such property in trust for the corresponding unit of the Territorial Force in like manner in all respects as they previously held it for the unit of the Volunteers or Yeomanry, and the corresponding unit should notwithstanding any trust, limitation, or condition affecting any such property, continue entitled to the benefit thereof in like manner as the unit was entitled thereto before it became a unit of the Territorial Force.

And whereas by virtue of the above-recited provisions of the said Order the trustees named in the first column of the schedules A and B to this Order hold the respective properties mentioned in the second columns of these schedules in trust for the respective units of the Territorial Force mentioned in the third columns of these schedules under and in virtue of the deeds the dates and parties whereof are respectively specified in the fourth columns of these schedules, and it is expedient that such properties should be transferred from those trustees to the respective County Associations mentioned in the fifth columns of these schedules.

Now therefore His Majesty, by and with the advice of the Privy Council, doth order, and it is hereby ordered, that as from the date of this Order the said properties respectively shall be by virtue of this Order transferred from the said trustees to and vested in the said respective County Associations and shall be held by said Associations for the benefit of the said units of the Territorial Force in like manner in all respects as they were held by the said respective trustees, or for such other purposes as the respective Associations with the consent of the said respective units (to be ascertained in manner prescribed by regulation of the Army Council) shall direct.
