PURSUANT to an Order of the Chancery Division of the High Court of Justice, made in the matter of the estate of JANE EDWARDS, Spinster, deceased, and in an action James against Williams, 1910, E., 109, the following inquiry was directed, viz.—An inquiry who were the persons entitled by virtue of, or according to the statute of distributions or otherwise to the estate of Jane Edwards, deceased, the intestate in the originating summons named, living at the time of her death, and whether any of them are since dead, and, if so, who are their legal personal representatives. Now the person or persons claiming to come within the above mentioned inquiry are, by their Solicitors, on or before the 12th day of October next, to come in and prove their claims at the Chambers of Mr. Justice Eve, at the Royal Courts of Justice, London, or in default thereof they will be peremptorily excluded from the benefit of the said Order.

Monday, the 24th day of October, 1910, at 12 o'clock noon, at the said chambers, is appointed for hearing and adjudicating upon the claims.

Dated the 28th day of July, 1910.

W. O. HEWLETT, Master.

NOTE.—The intestate, Jane Edwards, died on the 19th August, 1909. She was the daughter of the late Richard Edwards, and Mary Edwards (formerly James), of Knockin, in the county of Salop, but resided in London for many years.

John Edwards (or his children, if any) who was born in the parish of Kinnerley, in the county of Salop, in 1803, and was the son of John Edwards, and Elizabeth Edwards (formerly Dovaston); the children of Henry James, who was born in the said parish of Kinnerley, in or about the year 1817, and who is believed to have died in Liverpool, in or before the year 1870; and Henry James, who was born in the parish of Great Ness, in the said county of Salop, in or about the year 1838, and who has not been heard of since 1860, would, it is believed, be some of the next-of-kin of the intestate.

PERCY COOPER, 52, Bedford-row, London,
W.C., Plaintiff's Solicitor.

WHEREAS by an Order of the High Court of Justice, Chancery Division, made in the matter of the estate of GEORGE PENTLAND, deceased, and in an action of Lyons v. Dergon (1909, P., No. 325), the following inquiries were directed, namely, (1) An inquiry whether Henry Pentland, the brother of the above named intestate, George Pentland, deceased, was living at the death of the said intestate, on the 23rd February, 1909, and if so, whether he is since deceased, and if so who is his legal personal representative; (2) An inquiry in case the said Henry Pentland was not living at the death of the said intestate, whether the said Henry Pentland left any and what children him surviving, and whether they are now living.

Notice is hereby given, that all persons claiming under the said inquiries are by their Solicitors, on or before the 13th day of October, 1910, to come in and prove their claims at the chambers of Mr. Justice Warrington and Mr. Justice Parker, at the Royal Courts of Justice, Strand, London, or in default thereof they will be peremptorily excluded from the benefit of the said Order.

Thursday, the 20th day of October, 1910, at 11 o'clock in the forenoon, at the said chambers, is appointed for hearing and adjudicating on the claims.

Dated this 29th day of July, 1910.

RICHD. WHITE, Master.

NOTE.—The said Henry Pentland was last heard of in June, 1882, in Philadelphia, U.S.A., when he left the s.s. "Pensylvania."
