At the Court at Saint James's, the 2nd day of August, 1910.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the fifty-ninth year of His late Majesty King George the Third, chapter one hundred and thirty-four; of the Act of the second and third years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, chapter forty-nine; of the Act of the third and fourth years of Her said late Majesty, chapter sixty; and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Her said late Majesty, chapter fifty-five, duly prepared and laid before His Majesty in Council a representation, bearing date the thirtieth day of June, in the year one thousand nine hundred and ten, in the words and figures following, that is to say:—

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the fifty-ninth year of His late Majesty King George the Third, chapter one hundred and thirty-four; of the Act of the second and third years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, chapter forty-nine; of the Act of the third and fourth years of Her said late Majesty, chapter sixty; and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Her said late Majesty, chapter fifty-five, have prepared, and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council, the following representation as to the assignment of a district chapelry to the consecrated church of Saint Andrew, South Wimbledon, situate in the new parish (sometime district chapelry) of the Holy Trinity, South Wimbledon, in the county of Surrey and in the diocese of Southwark.

"Whereas it appears to us to be expedient that a district chapelry should be assigned to the said church of Saint Andrew, South Wimbledon, situate as aforesaid.

"Now therefore, with the consent of the Right Reverend Edward Stuart, Bishop of Southwark (testified by his having signed and sealed this representation), we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, humbly represent that it would, in our opinion, be expedient that all that part of the said new parish of the Holy Trinity, South Wimbledon, which is described in the schedule hereunder written, all which part, together with the boundaries thereof, is delineated and set forth on the map or plan hereunto annexed, should be assigned as a district chapelry to the said church of Saint Andrew, South Wimbledon, situate as aforesaid, and that the same should be named 'The District Chapelry of Saint Andrew, South Wimbledon.'

"And with the like consent of the said Edward Stuart, Bishop of Southwark (testified as aforesaid), we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, further represent, that it appears to us to be expedient that banns of matrimony should be published, and that marriages, baptisms, churchings, and burials should be solemnized or performed at the said church of Saint Andrew, South Wimbledon, situate as aforesaid, and that the fees to be received in respect of the publication of such banns and of the solemnization or performance of the said offices should be paid and belong to the Minister of the same church for the time being: Provided always, that nothing herein contained shall be construed as expressing any intention on the part of us, the said Commissioners, to concur in or approve the taking of any fee for the performance of the said office of baptism or for the registration thereof.

"We therefore humbly pray that Your Majesty will be graciously pleased to take the premises into Your Royal consideration and to make such Order with respect thereto as to Your Majesty, in Your Royal wisdom, shall seem meet.

"The SCHEDULE to which the foregoing Representation has reference.

"The District Chapelry of Saint Andrew, South Wimbledon, being:—

"All that part of the new parish (sometime district chapelry) of the Holy Trinity, South Wimbledon, in the county of Surrey and in the diocese of Southwark, which is bounded upon the south-east partly by the parish of Merton and partly by the district chapelry of Saint Saviour, Raynes Park, upon the north-west by the parish of Wimbledon, all in the said county and diocese, and upon the remaining sides, that is to say, upon the north-east and upon the east, by an imaginary line commencing upon the boundary which divides the said parish of Wimbledon from the said new parish of the Holy Trinity, South Wimbledon, at the centre of the bridge which carries the roadway connecting Wimbledon Hill-road with the road called the Broadway across the main line of the London and South Western Railway, and extending thence south-eastward along the middle of the said roadway and along the middle of the Broadway for a distance in all of seventeen chains or thereabouts to the junction of the Broadway with Russell-road, and extending thence southward along the middle of Russell-road for a distance of twenty-five chains and a half or thereabouts to the point where Russell-road meets the northern side of Kingston-road upon the boundary which divides the said new parish of the Holy Trinity, South Wimbledon, from the said parish of Merton."

And whereas the said representation has been approved by His Majesty in Council:

Now, therefore, His Majesty, by and with the advice of His said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said representation, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Acts; and His Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of Southwark.
