

THE FAIRS ACT, 1871.

The Local Government Act, 1894.

HASLEMERE FAIR.

The Secretary of State for the Home Department hereby gives notice that a representation has been duly made to him by the Rural District Council of Hambledon to the effect that a Fair has been held annually on the 13th day of May, and the 26th day of September, at Haslemere, in the county of Surrey, and that it would be for the convenience and advantage of the public that the said Fair should be abolished.

On the 26th day of September, 1910, the Secretary of State will take such representation into consideration, and any person who may desire to object to the abolition of the Fair should intimate his objections to the Secretary of State before that day.
