

before Your Majesty in Council the following scheme for effecting a transfer of the ownership of the advowson or perpetual right of patronage of and presentation to the church and cure (hereinafter called 'the said benefice') of Haverhill, in the counties of Essex and Suffolk and in the diocese of Ely.

"Whereas the advowson or perpetual right of patronage of and presentation to the said benefice of Haverhill stands limited to uses under which Sir George Howland William Beaumont, Baronet, of Coleorton Hall, in the county of Leicester, is tenant for life in possession, and the said George Howland William Beaumont is therefore the Patron or person entitled to present or nominate to the said benefice in case the same were now vacant.

"And whereas the said George Howland William Beaumont is desirous that the whole advowson or perpetual right of patronage of and presentation to the said benefice of Haverhill should be transferred to the Right Reverend Frederic Henry, now Bishop of Ely, and his successors in the same bishoprick.

"And whereas the said Frederic Henry, Bishop of Ely, is willing to accept such transfer, and in token of such his willingness, and also in token that the same transfer has that consent of the Bishop of the diocese which by the Acts in the hereinbefore mentioned Act recited or by some or one of them is made necessary, he, the said Frederic Henry, Bishop of Ely, has executed this scheme as hereinafter mentioned.

"And whereas the transfer of the patronage of the said benefice of Haverhill which is hereinbefore mentioned and hereinafter recommended and proposed, will render the same benefice more eligible for augmentation out of funds under our control, and this circumstance will in our opinion tend to make better provision for the cure of souls in the parish or district in or in respect of which the right of patronage or advowson so recommended and proposed to be transferred as aforesaid arises or exists, that is to say, in the parish of Haverhill.

"Now, therefore, with the consent of the said George Howland William Beaumont, being the person whose consent as Patron is required by the provisions of the hereinbefore mentioned Acts and of the Act of the first and second years of Her said late Majesty, chapter one hundred and six, (in testimony of which consent he has signed and sealed this scheme) and with the consent of the said Frederic Henry, Bishop of Ely, (in testimony whereof he has signed this scheme and sealed the same with his episcopal seal), we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, humbly recommend and propose that upon and from the day of the date of the publication in the London Gazette of any Order of Your Majesty in Council ratifying this scheme, and without any conveyance or assurance in the law other than such duly gazetted Order, the whole advowson or perpetual right of patronage of and presentation to the said benefice of Haverhill shall be transferred to the said Frederic Henry, Bishop of Ely, and his successors in the same bishoprick, and shall thereupon and thenceforth become and be absolutely vested in and shall and may from time to time be exercised by the said Frederic Henry, Bishop of Ely, and his successors in the same bishoprick for ever.

"And we further recommend and propose that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any further or other measures relating to the matters aforesaid, or any of them, in accordance with the provisions of the said Acts, or of any of them, or of any other Act of Parliament."

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by His Majesty in Council:

Now, therefore, His Majesty, by and with the advice of His said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to Order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Acts; and His Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of Ely.

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

"Whereas by the authority of an Order of Her said late Majesty in Council bearing date the twenty-fifth day of June, in the year one thousand eight hundred and seventy-two, and published in the London Gazette on the twenty-eighth day of the same month, part of the parish of Saint Thomas the Apostle, Exeter, in the said county of Devon and in the said diocese of Exeter, was assigned as a district chapelry to the consecrated church of Saint Andrew, situate at Exwick, within the limits of the said parish of Saint Thomas the Apostle, Exeter, and the said district chapelry was named 'The District Chapelry of Saint Andrew, Exwick.'

"And whereas the said district chapelry of Saint Andrew, Exwick, has, under the provisions of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Her said late Majesty, chapter one hundred and four, become a new parish of the character contemplated by that Act, by the Act of the sixth and seventh years of Her said late Majesty, chapter thirty-seven, and by the above mentioned Act of the thirty-second and thirty-third years of Her said late Majesty, chapter ninety-four.

"And whereas it has been represented to us, and it appears to us to be expedient that the boundaries of the said new parish of Saint Andrew, Exwick, should be altered in the manner which is hereinafter mentioned.
