

Southwell, which is bounded upon the north-west by the parish of Bulwell, upon the north by the new parish of Bestwood Park, upon the east by the new parish of Saint Paul, Daybrook, upon part of the south-east by the particular district of Saint John the Evangelist, Carrington, all in the said county and diocese, and upon the remaining sides, that is to say, upon the remaining part of the south-east and upon the south-west, by an imaginary line commencing upon the boundary which divides the said particular district of Saint John the Evangelist, Carrington, from the said parish of Basford, at the centre of the bridge which carries Hucknall-road across Day Brook, and extending thence generally south-westward along the middle of the said brook for a distance of one mile or thereabouts to the centre of the bridge or culvert which carries the Nottingham and Mansfield line of the Midland Railway across the said brook, and extending thence north-westward along the middle of the said line of railway for a distance of seventy chains or thereabouts to the boundary which divides the said parish of Basford from the said parish of Bulwell."

And whereas the said representation has been approved by His Majesty in Council :

Now, therefore, His Majesty, by and with the advice of His said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said representation, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Acts. And His Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of Southwell.

At the Court at Saint James's, the 13th day of October, 1910.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the third and fourth years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, chapter one hundred and thirteen, of the Act of the sixth and seventh years of Her said late Majesty, chapter thirty-seven, and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Her said late Majesty, chapter one hundred and four, duly prepared and laid before His Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the twenty-eighth day of July, in the year one thousand nine hundred and ten, in the words and figures following, that is to say:—

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the third and fourth years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, chapter one hundred and thirteen, of the Act of the sixth and seventh years of Her said late Majesty, chapter thirty-seven, and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Her said late Majesty, chapter one hundred and four, have prepared and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council the following scheme for constituting a separate district for spiritual purposes to be taken partly out of the parish of Saint Mary, Jarrow Docks, and partly out of the new parish (sometime district) of Saint Jude, South Shields, both within the original limits of the parish of Jarrow, in the county of Durham and in the diocese of Durham.

"Whereas we are satisfied that the said parish of Saint Mary, Jarrow Docks, and the said new parish of Saint Jude, South Shields, are cures wherein or in parts whereof the provision for public worship and for pastoral superintendence is insufficient for the spiritual wants of the inhabitants thereof, and it has been made to appear to us that it would promote the interests of religion that the particular portions of the said parish of Saint Mary, Jarrow Docks, and of the said new parish of Saint Jude, South Shields, which are hereinafter mentioned and described, should be constituted a separate district in the manner which is hereinafter set forth.

"And whereas there is not at present within the limits of the said proposed separate district any consecrated church or chapel in use for the purposes of Divine worship.

"And whereas certain hereditaments and premises situate within the said parish of Jarrow have become vested in us under the provisions of and for the purposes of the herein mentioned Acts or of some or one of them, and we have in respect of such hereditaments and premises agreed to make and pay out of the common fund created by the firstly herein mentioned Act a grant of one hundred and fifty pounds per annum to the Minister of the said proposed separate district so soon as a minister shall have been duly licensed in accordance with the provisions of the secondly herein mentioned Act and to his successors.

"And whereas the said grant of the said yearly sum of one hundred and fifty pounds will after the publication in the London Gazette of an Order of Your Majesty in Council ratifying this scheme be made and secured by an Instrument to be executed by us, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, under our common seal in accordance with the provisions of the Act of the twenty-ninth and thirtieth years of Her said late Majesty, chapter one hundred and eleven.

"Now therefore, with the consent of the Right Reverend Handley Carr Glyn, Bishop of Durham (in testimony whereof he has signed and sealed this scheme), we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, humbly recommend and propose that all those portions of the said parish of Saint Mary, Jarrow Docks, and of the said new parish of Saint Jude, South Shields, which are described in the schedule hereunder written, all which portions together with the boundaries thereof are delineated and set forth on the map or plan hereunto annexed, shall upon and from the day of the date of the publication in the London Gazette of any Order of Your Majesty in Council ratifying this scheme as aforesaid become and be constituted a separate district for spiritual purposes and that the same shall be named 'The District of Saint Francis, South Shields.'

"And we further recommend and propose that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid or any of them in accordance with the provisions of the said Acts or any of them or any other Act of Parliament.

"The SCHEDULE to which the foregoing Scheme has reference.

"The District of Saint Francis, South Shields, comprising:—

"1. All that portion of the parish of Saint Mary, Jarrow Docks, in the county of Durham and in the diocese of Durham, which is bounded upon the north partly by the new parish of the Holy Trinity, South Shields, and partly by the new parish (sometime district) of Saint Jude, South Shields, both in the said county and
