"Provided always that the said Dean and Chapter and their successors shall be entitled to exercise such right of presentation twice in succession after every presentation made by the said Archbishop and his successors.

"The said inquiry and consents are thus certified by the said Archbishop to the intent that Your Majesty in Council may by virtue of the said Acts issue an Order if Your Majesty in Council shall think fit so to do for uniting the said benefices of Saint Martin, Coney-street, and Saint Helen, Stonegate, into one benefice with cure of souls for ecclesiastical purposes only.

At the Court at Saint James's, the 13th day of October, 1910.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Order made by the late King's Most Excellent Majesty in Council, on the nineteenth day of March, one thousand nine hundred and eight (hereinafter referred to as the principal Order), His Majesty provided for the transfer, on and from the first April, one thousand nine hundred and eight, to the Territorial Force of certain units of Yeomanry and Volunteers, and in connection with such transfer made certain provisions with reference to the property belonging to or held for the benefit of such units:

And whereas, it being intended at the date of the principal Order that the units specified in the first column of the Schedule to that Order (in this Order referred to as the original Schedule) should, on transfer to the Territorial Force, become the units and be known by the titles specified in the second column of the original Schedule, it was provided by the principal Order that the several units or parts of units of the Yeomanry or Volunteers detailed in the first column of the original Schedule should be transferred to the Territorial Force, and should thereafter be units of the Territorial Force, and should be respectively known by the titles specified in the second column of the original Schedule:

And whereas amongst the units so detailed in the first column of the original Schedule were included the units of Yeomanry and Volunteers detailed in the first column of the Schedule to this Order, and the titles by which such units on transfer to the Territorial Force were to be respectively known specified in the second column of the original Schedule were those detailed in the second column of the Schedule to this Order:

And whereas partly owing to the fact that such intentions were never fully carried into effect, and partly owing to clerical errors the said units of Yeomanry and Volunteers detailed in the first column of the Schedule to this Order on transfer to the Territorial Force actually became the units, and became known by the titles detailed in the fourth column of the Schedule to this Order:

And whereas the third column of the original Schedule was intended to detail the county associations by which the several units of the Territorial Force detailed in the second column of that Schedule were to be administered, but owing partly to such changes of intention as aforesaid, and partly to clerical errors, the county associations which have actually administered the units of the Territorial Force corresponding to the units of the Yeomanry and Volunteers detailed in the first column of the Schedule to this Order are those detailed in the fifth column of that Schedule, and not (so far as they differ) those detailed in the third column of that Schedule:

And whereas in the first column of the original Schedule amongst the units of Yeomanry and Volunteers there detailed there are mentioned the 9th Royal Scots (except H Company) and the Scottish Rifles, 1st Lanarkshire Volunteer Rifle Corps (except K Company), and those units should have been mentioned without the exception of such companies as aforesaid:

And whereas by reason of the premises it is expedient that the original Schedule should be amended in manner hereinafter appearing:

Now, therefore, His Majesty, by and with the advice of His Privy Council doth order, and it is hereby ordered, that the principal Order shall have effect, and shall be deemed always to have had effect as if—

(A) for the units of the Territorial Force and county associations in the second and third columns of the original Schedule respectively set opposite such of the units of Yeomanry and Volunteers detailed in the first column of the original Schedule as are detailed in the first column of the Schedule to this Order, there were respectively set opposite such last mentioned units the units of the Territorial Force and county associations detailed in the fourth and fifth columns of the Schedule to this Order; and

(B) in the first column of the original Schedule the said exceptions of company H of the 9th Royal Scots, and company K of the Scottish Rifles, 1st Lanarkshire Volunteer Rifle Corps, were deleted.
