

His Majesty, having taken the said Memorial into consideration, was pleased, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, to approve of what is therein proposed. And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty are to give the necessary directions herein accordingly.

Almeric FitzRoy

At the Court at Saint James's, the 13th day of October, 1910.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS there was this day read at the Board a Memorial from the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty, dated the seventeenth day of August, one thousand nine hundred and ten, in the words following, viz. :—

“Whereas by the twentieth Section of an Act passed in the twenty-ninth year of the reign of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, chapter eighty-nine, entitled ‘The Greenwich Hospital Act, 1865,’ it is, amongst other things, enacted that the Admiralty shall from time to time continue or appoint such Officers, Clerks, and Servants, for the purposes of the Hospital and Schools as seem fit, and may (subject to the approval of Your Majesty in Council) fix the salaries of such Officers and Clerks :

“And whereas by an Order in Council of His late Majesty bearing date the twenty-eighth day of July, one thousand nine hundred and six, it was directed that the salary attached to the appointment of Receiver and Agent for the Greenwich Estate should not exceed three hundred pounds per annum, with residence :

“And whereas we are of opinion that this salary should now be revised :

“We beg leave humbly to recommend that Your Majesty may be graciously pleased by Your Order in Council to authorize, as from the eighth day of July, one thousand nine hundred and ten, the following maximum limits for the salary of the Receiver and Agent for the Greenwich Estate :—

“When the appointment is held by an Officer whose civil emoluments are subject to a deduction of ten per centum by the Rules under Section six of the Superannuation Act of 1887. } £338 17s. 9d. per annum with residence or allowance of £50 per annum in lieu thereof.

“When the appointment is held by an Officer whose civil emoluments are not subject to such deduction } £300 per annum, with residence or allowance of £50 per annum in lieu thereof.”

His Majesty having taken the said Memorial into consideration, was pleased, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, to approve of what is therein proposed. And the Right

Honourable the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty are to give the necessary directions herein accordingly.
