ELIZABETH COOPER'S ISSUE.

PURSUANT to an Order of the Chancery Division of the High Court of Justice, dated the 25th July, 1910, made re the estate of John Carlton, deceased, Fothergill v. Hoyle, 1881, C., 338, directing the following enquiries:—

(a) An enquiry whether Elizabeth Cooper, Sister of the testator, John Carlton, in his will mentioned, had any issue, and (if any), whether any of such issue were living at the death of the testator, on the 14th November, 1844. And in case it shall appear that no issue of the said Elizabeth Cooper survived the testator

(b) An enquiry who was at the date of the death of the testator entitled to the one-fifth share of residue bequeathed by the testator to the said Elizabeth Cooper and her issue;

Notice is hereby given, that all persons claiming to be issue of the said Elizabeth Cooper, or the legal personal representatives of issue of said Elizabeth Cooper, who have died since the death of the said testator, and all other persons claiming to be interested under the above enquiry, are personally, or by their Solicitors, on or before the 24th November, 1910, to enter their claims at the Chambers of Mr. Justice, Joyce, Royal Courts of Justice, Strand, London, Room 265, or in default thereof they will be peremptorily excluded from the benefit of the said Order.

Wednesday, the 30th November, 1910, at 2.15 o'clock in the afternoon, is appointed for hearing and adjudicating upon the claims.—Dated 24th October, 1910.

H. TEMPLER PRIOR, Master of the Supreme Court.

NOTE.—The said Elizabeth Cooper was a daughter of John and Elizabeth Carlton (maiden name Hinsliff), was born in or about 1786, in the neighbourhood of Leeds, Yorkshire, and is alleged to have married William Cooper, and to have had three children, named William, John and Caroline.
