A PROCLAMATION

For appointing a Day for the Celebration of the Solemnity of the Coronation of Their Majesties.

GEORGE R.I.

WHEREAS by Our Royal Proclamation bearing date the nineteenth day of July last, We did (amongst other things) publish and declare Our Royal intention to celebrate the Solemnity of Our Royal Coronation and of the Coronation of Our dearly beloved Consort the Queen, upon a day of June next to be thereafter determined, at Our Palace at Westminster; and whereas We have resolved by the favour and blessing of Almighty God to celebrate the said Solemnity upon Thursday the twenty-second day of June next, We do, by this Our Royal Proclamation, give notice thereof, and We do hereby strictly charge and command all Our loving subjects whom it may concern that all persons, of what rank or quality soever they be, who either upon Our Letters to them directed, or by reason of their offices and tenures, or otherwise, are to do any service at the time of Our Coronation, do duly give their attendance at the said Solemnity on Thursday the twenty-second day of June next, in all respects furnished and appointed as to so great a Solemnity appertaineth and answerable to the dignities and places which every one of them respectively holdeth and enjoyeth, and of this they or any of them are not to fail, as they will answer the contrary at their perils, unless upon special reasons by Ourselves under Our hand to be allowed, We shall dispense with any of their services or attendances:

Provided always, and We do further by this Our Royal Proclamation signify and declare, that nothing herein contained shall be construed to change or alter Our Royal determination as more fully declared in Our Royal Proclamation bearing date the nineteenth day of July last, whereby We did signify it to be Our Royal Will and Pleasure upon the occasion of this Our Coronation to dispense with that part of the Ceremonial which in times past took place in Westminster Hall, and that part thereof which consisted of the Procession.

Given at Our Court at St. James's, this seventh day of November, in the year of our Lord one thousand nine hundred and ten, and in the first year of Our Reign.

GOD save the KING.

A PROCLAMATION

For a Bank Holiday.

GEORGE R.I.

WE, considering that it is desirable that Tuesday, the twenty-seventh day of December next, should be observed as a Bank Holiday throughout those parts of Our United Kingdom called England and Wales, and Ire-
