

town of West Norfolk, in which district My home, with its many happy associations, has been situated for so many years. I recall the numerous occasions on which you welcomed King Edward and recognised His unfailing interest in your fortunes and in the progress of the Grammar School which is distinguished by His name and many marks of His encouragement.

Your Town and School will remain objects of My solicitude, and both will, I feel sure, continue to cherish those honourable traditions of which you are so justly proud.

On behalf of Queen Mary and Myself, I thank you sincerely for your good wishes and for your prayers on Our behalf.

At the Court at St. James's, the 7th day of November, 1910.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the sixth and seventh years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, chapter thirty-seven, duly prepared and laid before His Majesty in Council a Scheme, bearing date the twenty-seventh day of October, in the year one thousand nine hundred and ten, in the words and figures following; that is to say:—

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the sixth and seventh years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, chapter thirty-seven, sections six and eight, have prepared and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council the following scheme for authorizing the sale and disposal of certain property formerly belonging to the archdeaconry of Brecon in the cathedral church of Saint David's and now vested in us.

"Whereas under the Ecclesiastical Commission Act, 1868, and by virtue of an Order of Her said late Majesty in Council made under the provisions of the same Act, bearing date the seventh day of July, one thousand eight hundred and seventy-four, and duly published in the London Gazette of the tenth day of the same month all the lands, tithes, and other hereditaments theretofore annexed to and then forming part of the said archdeaconry (except any right of patronage) became absolutely vested in us for the purposes and subject to the provisions applicable to other hereditaments vested in us.

"And whereas the said lands, tithes and other hereditaments so vested in us as aforesaid are now in our possession and are not subject to any outstanding lease or grant, but on account of the character or situation of the property the said lands, tithes and other hereditaments are unsuitable or inconvenient to be held or applied for the purposes for which estates vested in us are applicable under the Acts by which our proceedings are governed.

"And whereas with a view to the advantageous appropriation of the said lands, tithes and other hereditaments or of the proceeds thereof for the ultimate improvement of our common fund it is expedient that the said lands, tithes and other hereditaments or such parts thereof as we shall at any time and from time to time think fit, should be sold or disposed of, and accordingly that we should be empowered to dispose of our interests therein or in any part or parts thereof in such manner as shall appear to us advisable.

"Now therefore we humbly recommend and propose that we may be authorized and empowered by instrument or instruments in writing duly executed according to law from time to time to sell and dispose of and duly to convey according to the provisions of the said Act of the sixth and seventh years of Her said late Majesty's reign all or any of the said lands, tithes and other hereditaments heretofore belonging to the said archdeaconry of Brecon and so vested in us as aforesaid with their appurtenances and all our estate, right, title and interest therein or in any part or parts thereof unto and to the use of any person or persons desirous or willing to purchase the same and his, her or their heirs, executors, administrators or assigns or otherwise as he, she or they shall direct or appoint and for such consideration as shall upon due calculation and inquiry appear to us to be just and reasonable it being our intention to invest the proceeds of such sale from time to time as occasion may arise, in the purchase of other lands, tithes, rent-charges, tenements, or hereditaments or of some estate or interest therein, convenient to be held by us for the purposes of the Acts by which our proceedings are governed as aforesaid, and in the meantime to invest the said proceeds in some Government or Parliamentary Stock or other public securities in England.

"And we further recommend and propose that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid, or any of them, in accordance with the provisions of the said Acts, or of any other Act of Parliament."

And whereas the said Scheme has been approved by His Majesty in Council:

Now, therefore, His Majesty, by and with the advice of His said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said Scheme, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Acts. And His Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the Diocese of St. Davids.

Almeric FitzRoy.
