[In substitution for the Order in Council published in the London Gazette of the 6th December, 1910.]

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 28th day of November, 1910.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by the Burial Act, 1855, it is, amongst other things, provided that it shall be lawful for His Majesty, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, from time to time to postpone the time appointed by any Order in Council for the discontinuance of burials, or otherwise to vary any Order in Council made under any of the Acts recited in the said Act, or under the said Act (whether the time thereby appointed for the discontinuance of burials thereunder, or other operation of such Order, shall or shall not have arrived), as to His Majesty, with such advice as aforesaid, may seem fit:

And whereas an Order in Council was made on the 8th day of February, 1890, directing the discontinuance of burials in the Parish Church of Bovey Tracey, in the county of Devon, and, with certain exceptions, in the churchyard:

And whereas it seems fit to His Majesty, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, that the said Order in Council of the 8th day of February, 1890, in so far as it affects burials in the said churchyard should be varied:

Now, therefore, His Majesty, by and with the advice aforesaid, is pleased to order, and it is hereby ordered, that the said Order in Council of the 8th day of February, 1890, be varied so that, notwithstanding anything therein, the burial of the bodies of members of the Hole family, at their decease, may be allowed in that portion of the said churchyard which was added thereto in or about the year 1887, subject to the condition that no part of the coffins containing the bodies shall be at a depth less than three feet below the level of the surface of the ground adjoining the grave.

Americ FitzRoy.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 28th day of November, 1910.

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by section 26 of the Pluralities Act, 1838, after reciting that, "Whereas in some instances tithings, hamlets, chapelries, and other places or districts may be separated from the parishes or mother churches to which they belong, with great advantage, and places altogether extra parochial may, in some instances, with advantage be annexed to parishes or districts to which they are contiguous, or be constituted separate parishes for Ecclesiastical purposes," it is, amongst other things, enacted, "That when with respect to his own diocese it shall appear to the Archbishop of the Province, or when the Bishop of any diocese shall represent to the said Archbishop that any such tithing, hamlet, chapelry, place or district within the diocese of such Archbishop, or the diocese of such Bishop, as the case may be, may be advantageously separated from any parish or mother church, and either be constituted a separate benefice by itself or be united to any other parish to which it may be more conveniently annexed, or to any other adjoining tithing, hamlet, chapelry, place, or district, parochial or extra parochial, so as to form a separate parish or benefice, or that any extra parochial place may with advantage be annexed to any parish to which it is contiguous, or be constituted a separate parish for Ecclesiastical purposes: And the said Archbishop or Bishop shall draw up a scheme in writing (the scheme of such Bishop to be transmitted to the said Archbishop for his consideration) describing the mode in which it appears to him that the alteration may best be effected, and how the changes consequent on such alteration in respect to Ecclesiastical jurisdiction, glebe lands, tithes, rent charges, and other Ecclesiastical dues, rates, and payments, and in respect to patron-
