The Board of Trade have received, through the Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs, a copy of a Despatch, dated November 28th, from His Majesty's Representative at Lima, forwarding the following translation of a Presidential Decree empowering the Sanitary Authorities to make healthy persons arriving from places in which cholera exists undergo observation:—

Lima, November 25, 1910.

Taking into consideration:

That experience has shown the possibility of the transmission of cholera from one country to another by persons carrying the bacillus or even by healthy persons who, however, have germs of that malady in their organism:

In conformity with the report of the Department of Public Health and with the decision of the Superior Council of Hygiene;

Be it resolved:

To amplify the existing sanitary regulation in the sense that the sanitary authorities shall have the power to subject healthy persons, but who are arriving from places in which cholera exists, before allowing them free pratique, to observation, the length of which shall vary in each case between five and forty-five days, according to the result of the bacteriological examination undertaken by the said authorities, until it is shown that virulent bacilli of cholera are absent from their dejections.

Signature of His Excellency.

EGO AGUIRRE,
Minister of Fomento.
